Many in Athens learned with deep regret of the serious illness of Mrs. Amos Robinson, of Brockville. She is now in the hospital, having undergone an operation, and while hopes are entertained of her recovery, her condition is still regarded as serious. Mrs. Cornell has been with her at intervals during her illness.

He sits alone in a darkened room, alone in the fading light. Why are his brows so heavy with gloom and his cheeks so deadly white? But though his heart is faint with care, his courage never flinches. His eyes are fixed in a glassy stare. What is it his firm hand clutches? "A little courage," he murmurs, "Yes, a little, and all is won." A choking gurgle, more or less, a gasp and the deed is done! Without a shudder or eyelid wink—Ah! It makes the heart recoil that he so quietly, calmly drank a dose of castor oil.

An Ancient Foe To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"Two of my children had scrofula sores which kept growing deeper and kept them from going to school for three months. Ointments and medicines did no good until I began giving them Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine caused the sores to heal, and the children have shown no signs of scrofula since." J. W. McGinn, Woodstock, Ont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as it has rid thousands.

MONTREAL POLICE FORCE. Investigation Has Been Stopped by an Injunction by Judge Laverge.

Montreal, Jan. 19.—An injunction has been granted by Judge Laverge restraining the police investigation from proceeding.

Montreal, Jan. 19.—Ex-Lieut. Fortin, now proprietor of the Jacques Cartier Hotel, told Saturday why he left the Montreal police force to become hotel-keeper. He declares that he was approached by a person whose name he will make public at the proper time, and told that if he put up $1,200 he could be promoted to a captaincy. Fortin would not be bled in this manner, and retired from the force in disgust. He is confident that merit does not count, and will give his reasons before the Investigating Committee.

HOPE FOR IRISH VET. John Redmond believes Irish Will Be Given Chance For Peace.

London, Jan. 19.—John Redmond, M.P., the Irish leader, responding to a Nationalist address presented to him at Edinburgh Saturday night, said he believed that the friends of Ireland would soon see a measure become law which would heal the wounds of centuries, and give the Irish people a chance of living in peace and prosperity on their own soil. If this chance of settling the Irish land question was lost by the rejection of the measure, continued Mr. Redmond, there would be an overwhelming justification for such a strong, menacing and dangerous movement in Ireland as he would be sorry to see.
