To the Teacher.—Do not credit any Scholar with having prepared the lesson who does not at least try to answer the questions. Take the leaflet home and assign a value to each answer, announcing the result on the following Sabbath. Take, or send, the Leaflet to absent scholars.

Always bring your Bible and Shorter Catechism to the Sabbath School.

HELPS IN STUDYING.

INTRODUCTORY—The pitiless oppression to which the Hebrews were subjected failed to reduce their numbers. The more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and grew. Pharaoh then issued the edict which has made his memory infamous. He commanded that all the male infants should be cast into the river as soon as born. Such an inhuman decree defeated itself. Few could be found who would execute it. Doubtless it soon became a dead letter. But while it was in its first force Moses was born. Our lesson tells us how his life was saved.

LESSON PLAN I A Loving Mother vs 1-4 II A Gentle Princess vs. 5-10.

I. A LOVING MOTHER. 1. A man—Amram, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi. (ch. 6: 18, 20) A daughter of Levi—rather, "the daughter," perhaps an only daughter. Her name was Jochebed, which means "Whose glory is Jehovah." They had been married some time before this. Miriam was at least twelve years old, and Aaron about five. 2. A goodly child—What is said of him in Acts 7: 20? In Heb. 11: 23? No doubt she would have tried to save him in any case, but something told her that God would help her. So she laid her plans skilfully and prayerfully. Nothing need be despaired of if we do our best and trust in God. If things do not then turn out as we wish, we may rest contented that they have turned out as God wished them to. Three months—Perhaps the secret had leaked out and Pharaoh's searchers were coming. 3. Ark—A box or basket. Bulrushes—these were the famous Papyrus reeds. The stem was three-cornered and as tall as a man. It was very tough and pliable. The Egyptians made writing material out of the pith of the stem, hence our word "paper." She
