

public contracts. This Act was adopted, 1896. He holds a 1st class R. S. I. cert., was apptd. major 59th Batt. Infy., July, 1888, and was promoted Lt.-col. commanding, Feb. 8, 1897. A mem. of the Presb. Ch., he is unm. He believes that the circumstances of the country require a reasonable amount of protection to develop and encourage our growing industries. He is a strong advocate of Brit. connection, and opposed to any policy that might tend, directly or indirectly, to discriminate against the Mother Country.—Alexandria, Ont.; Rideau Club; St. James's Club; Albany Club.

—“An assiduous and efficient mem. of Parlt.”—Empire.

McLENNAN, William, author, is the 2nd s. of Hugh McLennan (q.v.). B. in Montreal, May 8, 1856, he was ed. at the High Sch. in that city. He graduated B.C.L. at McGill Univ., 1880, and in the following year, was admitted a N.P., P.Q. He is a representative fellow in law of McGill Univ., one of the executive of the Fraser Inst., a trustee of the Tiffin Library, and a mem. of Council of the Art Assn., Montreal. He holds the official position of notary to the Bank of Montreal. In addition to writing verses, stories and historical articles for Can. and Am. publications, he has published “Songs of Old Can.” translated from the French (1886); and “Montreal and Some of the Makers Thereof” (1893). He also ed. a volume of poems written by the late E. B. Brownlow (“Sarepta”), 1896, and, in 1897, in collaboration with Miss McIlwraith (q.v.), completed for the Harpers a Can. historical romance. Among his other mag. articles are a series of sketches of French-Can. life, “A King for a Week,” and “A Gentleman of the Royal Guard” which appeared in Harper's Mag. A Presb. in religion, he m. June, 1883, Marion, dau. of Pemberton Patterson, Quebec.—1056 Dorchester St., Montreal.

—“One of the most substantial contributors to Can. literature.”—John, Lesperance.

McLEOD, Clement Henry, C.E., educationist, is the s. of Isaac McLeod, by his wife, Euphemia Lawrence, and was b. in Cape Breton, N.S., Jan. 20, 1851. Ed. at the public schs., and at the Model and Normal schs., Truro; he graduated in engineering at McGill Univ., 1873. His first appt. was as asst. engr. in charge of sec. construction on the Intercl. Ry., 1872, following which he became resident engr. on construction, P. E. I. Ry., 1873, and afterwards engr. of Public Works, Nfd. He has been suptd. of the observatory at McGill Coll. since 1874, and was apptd. a prof. in the Faculty of App. Science in the same institution, Dec. 18, 1888. He is also a Fellow of the Univ. He is a corr. mem. of several learned bodies in Can., a Fellow of the Royal Soc. of Can., and a Fellow of the Am. Assn. for the Advance. of Science. He became a mem. of the Can. Soc. of C. E., and Secy. of that body, 1887. In addition to various other contributions to scientific literature, he is the author of papers on the Transit of Venus, 1882, and on a re-determination of the longitude of Montreal and Cambridge, of Montreal and Toronto, and of Montreal and Greenwich. He m. July, 1876, Miss Mary Ellen McLaren.—McGill College; 69 McTavish St., Montreal.

McLEOD, Hon. Ezekiel, judge and jurist, is the s. of the late John McLeod, by his wife, Mary McCready. B. in Cardwell, King's Co., N.B., Oct. 29, 1840, he was ed. at the High Sch. there, and graduated LL.B. at Harvard Univ., 1867. Called to the bar, 1868, he practised in the city of St. John, was one of the directors of the St. John Law Soc., and was created a Q.C., by the Marquis of Lorne, 1882. A Lib.-Con. in politics, he sat in the Provl. Legislature, in that interest, for St. John city, from g. e. 1882 to g. e. 1886, when he was defeated. He held office as Atty.-Genl. in the Hannington Admn., 1882-83, was