

As to property
left by dead
passengers.

(b.) if there be no such relatives, or other persons entitled to take charge of such moneys and effects, to fully designate in the said report the quantity and description of the property, whether money or otherwise, left by such person, and to pay over and fully account therefor to the immigration agent for the port at which the vessel is entered, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars and not less than twenty dollars.

For master
compelling passengers to leave vessel
before 24
hours from arrival.

51. If the master of any vessel arriving at any port of entry in Canada where facilities for housing or inland carriage are not immediately available, compels any immigrant to leave his vessel before the expiration of the period of twenty-four hours after the arrival of the vessel in the port or harbour to which the master or owner of such vessel engaged to convey such immigrant, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each such immigrant whom he so compels to leave the vessel.

Removing
berth, etc.

2. If such master, before the expiration of the said period, removes any berth or accommodation used by any passenger, except with the written permission of the immigration agent at the port of entry, he shall for each such removal incur a like penalty of twenty dollars.

For master
refusing to land
passengers
free.

52. If the master of any vessel arriving at any port of entry fails or refuses to land the passengers and their luggage, free of expense to the passengers, at one of the usual public landing places at such port of arrival, and according to the orders which he received from the immigration agent at such port, and at reasonable hours as fixed by such agent in accordance with the regulations in that behalf, if any, he shall incur a penalty of forty dollars for each offence.

For master
refusing or neglecting to properly land
passengers.

53. If the master of any vessel arriving at any port of entry in Canada and having on board such vessel any passengers to whom this Act applies refuses or neglects to land such passengers and their luggage, free of expense, and by steam tug or other proper tender, if necessary, at the place appointed under section 36 of this Act, and at reasonable hours, fixed as aforesaid, he shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars for each such passenger.

IMMIGRANT RUNNERS, ETC.

For soliciting,
etc.,
immigrants
by other than licensed persons.

54. Every person who, at any port or place within Canada, for hire, reward or gain, or the expectation thereof,—

(a.) conducts, solicits, or recommends, either orally or by handbill or placard, or in any other manner, any immigrant to or on behalf of,—

- (i.) any owner of a vessel, or
- (ii.) any railway company, or
- (iii.) any lodging-house keeper or tavern keeper, or
- (iv.) any other person,
