farmer specially appeals to French Canadian farmers. I hope to hold at least one more meeting in the purely French district of St. Ignace de Stanbridge. In 1921 I, with the other French speakers on the staff of the Conservative candidate were refused a hearing there. Now I have a most pressing invitation from French Liberals to come down.

If any action is taken it should be this winter, the only season at which it is possible to assemble farm audiences. I have pressing requests to assist local workers in Shefford and Stanstead, as well as in my own Brome-Missisquoi, but I am afraid I cannot afford the time and expense involved.

Please remember that it is vital that any campaign in this direction should be ostensibly nonpartisan. The rest can be very easily attended to later.

I am informed on the best authority that the local Liberal committee have finally decided that Mr. McMaster cannot be run here again.
