Ottawa, June 6, 1914.

Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th instant enclosing your bill for tuition fees, books and stationery for Miss Maria O'Bonsawin of Pierreville and also a bill for her board.

In reply I beg to say that before the Department can pay these accounts it would like to know whether this girl has been in regular attendance at the College and also whether she made satisfactory progress in her studies, as these were the conditions on which this grant was to be allowed.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
