

Memorandum of the fees payable by him, and until the same is paid, such candidate shall not be deemed to be a member of the Mess or entitled to any of the privileges thereof. If any candidate elected fails to pay his fees within four weeks after notification, his election may be declared void by the Mess Committee.

GENERAL RULES.

26. The treating of members of the Mess is not permissible unless with the consent of the Senior Officer present.

27. Politics and religious questions of every kind are absolutely excluded from open discussion in the Mess Rooms.

28. No member shall take away from the Mess Rooms upon any pretence whatsoever, any article the property of the Officers' Mess.

29. All complaints or suggestions with regard to the conduct of the Mess shall be made to the President of the Mess in writing, and no Officer not on the Committee shall call any one to account for any real or alleged misconduct in connection therewith, such being the special duty of the Committee.