

holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life."

T. Of how many parts does this baptismal promise or vow consist?

S. Of three parts.

T. What is the first promise made in behalf of every baptized person?

S. That he renounce his three spiritual enemies; the devil, the world, and the flesh.

T. What is it to renounce them?

S. It is from the heart to hate them, and to forsake their wicked works.

T. Whom do you mean by the devil?

S. An invisible wicked spirit, the grand enemy of God and man.

T. What are the works of the devil?

S. All kinds of sin and wickedness.

T. Mention some of those sins which are more especially the works of the devil.

S. Amongst them are pride, idolatry, swearing, sabbath-breaking, murder, quarrelling, theft, lying, and such like.

T. Through whose power can we successfully fight against the devil and his works?

S. Through the power of Christ.

T. What is the second enemy of your soul, which you have engaged to renounce?

S. "This wicked world, and all its pomps and vanities."