St. Lawrence Hall.

HENRY HOGAN, Proprietor.

MONTREAL, - P.Q.

For upwards of Thirty-five years the name of the St. Lawrence Hall has been familiar to all travellers on this Continent. The Hotel is conveniently situated in the heart of the business centre of Montreal, and is contiguous to the General Post Office and other important Public Buildings. It is handsomely decorated, luxuriously furnished, lighted by the electric light, and fitted with a Passenger Elevator. The building, which has recently been extended, contains 350 Rooms, and has an elegant new Parlour, and the Dining Room has been recently enlarged and renovated, making it one of the finest in Canada. The Hotel is managed by Mr. SAMUEL MONTGOMERY, under the personal supervision of Mr. HENRY HOGAN.
