CHILDREN'S AID

One of the most flourishing organizations in the city, and one which is engaged in probably the most laudable work, is the Children's Aid Society. The board held their regular monthly meeting last evening, with the following members present:—Messdames Stephenson, D. S. Paterson, G. B. Douglas, Sheldon, Goodland and W. E. McKeough, and Messrs. D. S. Paterson, H. Macaulay, Gosnell and Dr. R. V. Bray.

Dr. R. V. Bray, executive officer, reported for the month, five visits, seven letters written, four interviews, one case reported investigated and still under observation, two applications for children. The report was adopted.

Accounts to the amount of $221.08 were passed.

The executive officer reported that Mrs. L. J. Harvey, provincial visitor, has made her annual visit to the children of Kent County, and her report will be received next month.

A donation of $1.50, from School Section No. 5, Howard and Orford, was thankfully received.

The following donations of clothing were also thankfully received:—Mrs. J. E. Thomas, 18 pieces; Mrs. A. Park, 20 pieces; Mrs. J. L. Bray, 12 pieces; Mrs. W. E. McKeough, 10 pieces; Mrs. Goodland, 8 pieces. A meeting was decided to have their annual meeting on Thursday, December 10, and the following committee was appointed to make full arrangements:—Messdames W. E. McKeough, S. Stephenson, D. S. Paterson and Messrs. D. S. Paterson and Dr. R. V. Bray. At this meeting it is expected that a number of speakers from outside places will be present.

Sixty-six new members have been added to the society during the past month.

STR. ATLANTIC BURNED.

She Carried a Cargo of Coal Oil and Hay.

Parry Sound, Nov. 11.—The steamer Atlantic of the Northern Navigation Company was entirely destroyed by fire near Red Rock at 9 o'clock.

The Atlantic was on a special trip from Collingwood to Byng Inlet with a large cargo of merchandise, including a hundred barrels of coal oil and a quantity of hay. A heavy gale was blowing and the vessel was taken in by the Parry Sound channel to escape the severity of the storm. When about fourteen miles from this port the fire broke out, and in a few minutes the steamer was enveloped in flames. The passengers and crew, who had all taken to the boats, arrived safely by here yesterday. The Atlantic sunk in sixty feet of water. She was fully insured.

CANNOT LAND TROOPS.

Colombia is Helpless to Fight for Her Rights.

Washington, Nv. 10.—Upon receipt of a report to the State Department that several British vessels were to be chartered by the Colombian Government to take troops from Buena Ventura to the isthmus, the United States Navy Department has ordered the Boston to proceed off Buena Ventura, and in the event that the troops start for the isthmus their commanders will be informed that they cannot land. The Navy Department announces that no attempt will be made to interfere with British vessels on the high seas.

Hurry Out Sale of Furs

The weather we have had for the last month has been glorious in many respects—good for the farmers, good for the pavement makers and scores of other lines, but it has not been good fur weather, and that's the reason for our story to-day.

We know there is lots of cold weather coming, but we cannot afford to wait for it. The fur manufacturers look to us for their money promptly, no matter what the weather may be like. We want the money to pay for all these furs, and we want it right away, so that's why we are going to sell furs at the prices indicated below.

Please remember that all our furs were bought early in April last, and are fully 10 per cent. cheaper than present market prices. When we quote regular price we mean our present marked price which is, as we said, fully 10 per cent. below the present market value of the same goods.

SMALL FURS,

Such as Ruffs, Capelines, Stole Fronts, Boas, etc., in almost endless variety here to choose from as well. You will find prices on them all that are decidedly in your favor.

We haven't said anywhere that the prices in the wholesale ones, or that they are either above or below cost, we simply assure you that the values are better than we have ever offered you at any time of the year heretofore. Back of every garment sold stands our guarantee of satisfaction or your money back.

If you have a fur want, it will pay you to see these offerings, and quickly, too, as once any advertised furs are sold we cannot take any special orders to replace them at the same prices

LET US HAVE A WORD WITH YOU

ABOUT CLOTHING.

There are at least half a dozen reasons why you should at least know what is being shown at Austin's, before you make your purchase. 1.—The breadth of the stock, variety. 2.—Handsomest fabrics shown anywhere. 3.—Correct and stylish cut of the garments. 4.—The excellence of the hidden linings and workmanship. 5.—Finish excellent only by the finest custom work. 6.—Last, prices that are decidedly lower than can be found elsewhere, on clothing of equal character. These are only a few of the reasons which have built up this enormous clothing business here in so short a time. There had to be tangible and decisive evidence of betterness, or the business would neither have come to us nor staid with us. Isn't it to your interest to find out whether you have been getting the best for your money in clothing? Look, for instance, at our tailor-made suits and overcoats at $10, $12 and $15.

Men's Suits.—Our great special sale of men's suits this week now in full swing. Handsome pattern worsteds and tweeds and plain black and blue serges and worsteds, single and double breasted suits, regular $12 to $15, all sizes, at $10.00.

Men's Overcoats.—Another lot of our tailor-made overcoats at $10 and $12, of plain dark Oxford cheviot, in the long full garments so popular this season, made with breast pocket and the ordinary overcoat pockets, a genteel and dressy coat, also swaggar mixtures and stripe goods, in 48 and 50 inch Raglanettes, from $7.50 to $16.00.

Our Tailor-Made Black Suits for Men, at $10 and $13.50.—Cloths specially imported by us and made up to our own ideas, linings selected, the cloths are the noted west of England black clay worsteds, 21 and 22 oz cloths, pure wool and will keep their color, single and double breasted and skirt coat styles, full range of sizes always kept in stock from 34 to 44, the custom tailor's price $18 to $23, here $10 and $13.50.
