

MRS. FRANK STROEBE

A Remarkable Recovery. Mrs. Frank Stroebe, R. F. D. 1, Appleton, Wis., writes: "I began using Peruna a few months ago, when my health and strength were all gone, and I was nothing but a nervous wreck, could not sleep, eat or rest properly, and felt no desire to live. Peruna made me look at life in a different light, as I began to regain my lost strength. "I certainly think Peruna is without a rival as a tonic and strength builder."

JAIL FOR TAKING LOAN.

Bankrupt Loses Honor and Rank by Buying Horses on Credit. English law is always very strict with regard to bankrupts, who, having failed to secure a discharge of their bankruptcy from the courts, secure credit for more than $100.

This Everard William Wyld has just found to his cost. For he has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment for an offence of this kind and will in all probability entail the forfeiture of his cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, which he received for his services as delegate of the British Government to the International Slave Trade Congress at Brussels in 1889.

Wyld is a man of 60 years of age, who has spent a number of years in the Foreign Office, from which he was obliged after 30 years of service to retire on account of financial difficulties.

He has on several occasions been employed as secretary of legation and bears a name honored in the annals of the Foreign Office, where his father and grandfather served with distinction before him, and also at court, with which his people were likewise connected.

But he seems to have completely lost his head, having while an undischarged bankrupt, not only purchased race horses on credit, but even having them trained by the well known trainer, Charles Waugh, without having a penny to pay either the latter or the vendors of the horses.

MUTUALLY TRAPPED.

There was a moment's silence after the introduction. Womanlike, each was mentally "sizing the other up." Then one spoke.

"My husband frequently speaks of you," she said.

"Indeed?" returned the other.

"My husband thinks you are wonderfully clever."

"Really? Why, that's the way my husband talks about me. He told me how you reshaped and recovered that old parasol, and so saved $3.75."

"Parasol? Why, I never touched it until my husband had harped all one day on your cleverness in upholstering and reining a perambulator at a saving of $10."

"Nonsense! The thing that made me do that was the way my husband talked about that parasol. Then he got me to retrimming a last year's hat because you were working over an old dress."

"But I never started to do that until my husband had told me five times about your hat. I wasn't going to admit that you could be any more economical than I."

"Why, really, I heard of that dress twenty-four hours before I touched the hat."

"Impossible! 'I—' then she stopped and her eyes began to flash. "I believe your husband—"

"I believe they have," chimed in the other, becoming excited also.

"It's a wicked shame."

"An outrage. They've just tricked us, that's all."

"It was a regular plot. And to think how he made me work. I'll get a new gown to-day."

"And I a hat."

The two women went into a milliner's and spent all the money they could scrape together. And the two men got mighty little for dinner that night, and when they complained they were promptly convinced that they ought to have said nothing.

Don't ask for a stone and expect to get bread. Creditors—If say, old man, why don't you get out of debt? Debtor—Haven't time. It keeps me busy getting in!

SUMMER COMPLAINTS

KILL LITTLE ONES

At the first signs of illness during the hot weather months give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets, or in a few hours the child may be beyond cure. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to well children, and will promptly cure these troubles if they come unexpectedly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are young children.

There is no other medicine so effective and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that the Tablets are absolutely safe. Mrs. E. LeBurn, Carleton, Que., says:—"Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for regulating the stomach and bowels. I think no other should be without this medicine." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Of the 15,074 empty houses in Glasgow, 14,000 are houses of three rooms and kitchen and under. The tramways can only be held responsible to a small extent for this.

WHAT BECOMES OF OLD BOOTS.

What becomes of old boots and shoes has hitherto been almost as puzzling a problem as where all the pins go. The solution, however, is given in a trade journal. "Old boots and shoes of leather," the journal says, "are cut up into small pieces, and then are put for two days into chloride of sulphur, the effect of which is to make the leather very hard and brittle. When this is fully effected the material is withdrawn from the action of the chloride of sulphur, washed with water, dried, and ground to powder. It is then mixed with some substance that will cause it to adhere together, such as shellac or other resinous material, or even a good glue, and a thick solution of strong gum. It is afterwards pressed into moulds to form combs, buttons, and a variety of other useful articles. Prussiate of potash is also made out of old leather. It is heated with pearl-ash and old iron hoops in a large pot. The nitrogen and carbon form cyanogen, and then unite with the iron and potassium. The soluble portions are dissolved out, and the resulting salt, added to one of iron, produces the well-known Prussian blue, either for dyeing purposes or as a pigment."

SCRAP IN THE MARKET.

"But these potatoes have black eyes," protested the angry housewife.

"Oh can't help that, mum," replied Marketman Grogan. "You see, the potatoes got mixed with the squashes and got to flim."

Something More Than a Purgative.—To purge is the only effect of many pills now on the market. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are more than a purgative. They strengthen the stomach, where other pills weaken it. They cleanse the blood by regulating the liver and kidneys, and they stimulate where other pill compounds depress. Nothing of an injurious nature, used for merely purgative powers, enters into their composition.

CHAPTER I.

TACT.

Tact is the happy way of doing things—the loving way. It is sensitive as to the feelings of others. There is a plant that grows in the desert—the mimosa. It is called, and it is a sensitive plant. No sooner does it hear the distant trample of horses' feet upon the earth than it curls up its trembling leaves. There are people like that plant. The tactful soul knows how to draw out these shy and backward ones—these boys and girls that hardly dare venture to play a game in the playground with others. Tact always finds a way to put them at ease, and bring out whatever good there is in them—indeed, tact knows how to deal with all kinds of people.

The Eiffel Tower, which is painted once every six years, claims, on an average, five victims on each occasion.

"He has no regard for anyone else. He has no milk of human kindness." "Oh! I wouldn't say that. He's a very small man, you know; probably he has it, but it's condensed."

HOPE FOR HIM.

"But," said the lawyer, "your case seems hopeless. I don't see what I can do for you. You admit that you beat your wife."

"Yes," replied the defendant. "But my wife's testimony will discount that. She'll never admit that she was beaten."

RIGHT BACK AT HIM.

Two famous physicians of different schools were introduced one evening at a dinner.

"Sir," said the allopath, "I am glad to meet you as a gentleman, though I can't admit that you are a physician."

"And," replied the homeopath, "I'm glad to meet you as a physician, though I can't admit that you're a gentleman."

When going away from home, or at any change of habitat, he is a wise man who numbers among his belongings a bottle of J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. Change of food and water in some strange place where there are no doctors may bring on an attack of dysentery. He then has a standard remedy at hand with which to cope with the disorder, and for a time he can successfully fight the ailment and subdue it.

NOTHING NEW TO HIM.

"Ostend," remonstrated his mother, "how often have I told you not to stare at people with your mouth open? They don't like it, my son."

"But that gentleman won't mind me," hastened Tommy, "he is a dentist."

THE PHILOSOPHER OF FOLLY.

"A lot of people swear that there's nothing in futh cure," says the Philosopher of Folly. "And yet every doctor in the land knows that there's about nine-tenths of his salary in it for him."

To know is to prevent.—If the miners who come in cold water most of the day would rub their feet and legs with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil they would escape muscular rheumatism and render their nether limbs proof against the ill effects of exposure to the cold. Those setting out for mining regions would do well to provide themselves with a supply before starting.

ON THE HONEYMOON.

The Bridegroom—"Ah, darling, I can see the lovelight in your eyes."

The Bride—"Don't be silly, George. There is nothing in my eyes but cinders."

For the Overworked.—What are the causes of despondency and melancholy? A disordered liver is one cause and a prime one. A disordered liver means a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the victim feels sick all over. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

NOT WASTED.

An army officer in charge of a native district in South Africa presented to the Kaffir boy, who acted as his particular servant, a pair of strong, heavily-nailed Army boots.

The boy was delighted with the gift, and at once sat down and put the boots on. They were the very first pair he had ever had in his life, and for several days afterwards he strutted proudly about the camp.

But at the end of the week he appeared as usual with bare feet, and the boots tied round his neck.

"Hello!" said his master. "Why don't you wear your boots? Are they too small for you?"

"Oh, no, sah," replied the Kaffir, "they plenty big. Berry nice boots, sah, but no good for walking or running. Make um fellah too much slow, sah. Keep boots now for wear in bed."
