

Novel, Entertaining, Instructive—

COLUMBIA

Dance Instruction Records

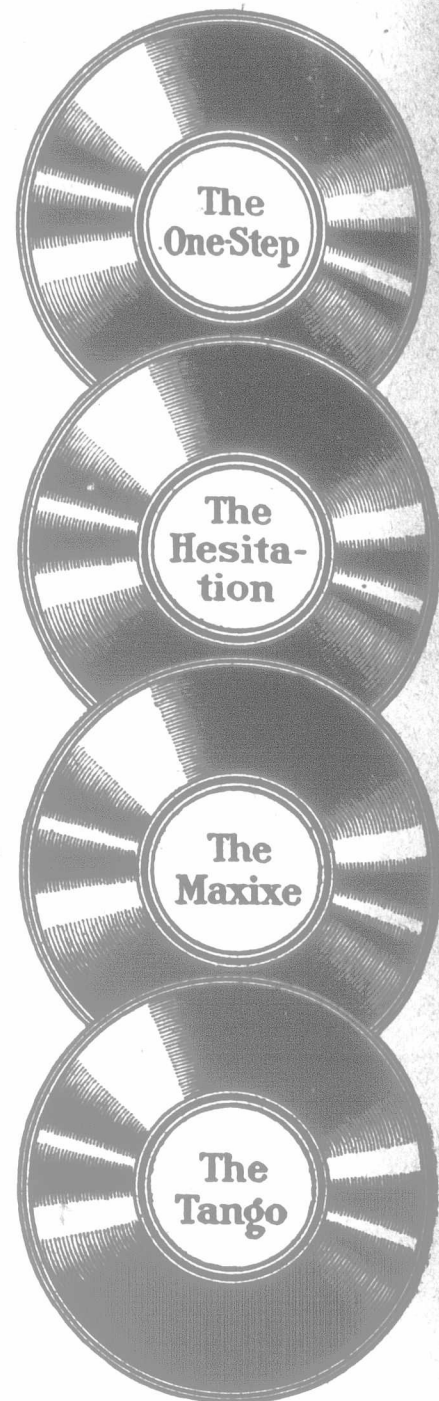

THE four Columbia Dance Instruction records at $1.00 each. They teach you in your own home how to dance the one-step, the maxixe, the hesitation or the tango.

Take G. Hepburn Wilson's book, "How to Dance the Modern Dances," which we give FREE with each record, and put one of the four Columbia Dance Instruction Records on your Columbia (or Victor).

A. 1542—The One-Step.
A. 1543—Hesitation Waltz.
A. 1540—The Maxixe.
A. 1541—The Tango.

If you never owned a Grafonola before, you want one now! Prices from $32.50 to $650. Sold for as little as $5 a month.

These records are absolutely the greatest musical novelty ever offered---yes, and absolutely practical, because you can use them hundreds of times---and certainly learn the way to dance the modern dances. Each record is only $1.00, with a complete dance selection on the reverse side, worth the $1.00 all by itself.

Ask to hear them at the Columbia dealer's store in your vicinity.
