PATHER REHOE ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

Last Sunday Father Kehoe, in the course of an instructive sermon on the necessity of Christians being animated with the spirit of self denial sepecially during this senson of Lent, told his congregation that self denial is necessary to alvation; that temperance in all these as well as in eating and drinking, is necessary for advantage, the time temperance in all these as well as in eating and drinking, is necessary for advantage. Referring to the question of inoxicating drinks, he stated that there is an element of society who ligher the true temperance cause by continually asking change of legislation, he said, will not better the condition. Laws are only useful in so far as they are utilized. Many good and earnest persons become disgusted at the centinual cry for liquor legislation, while they observe that little or nothing is done for the enforcement of the laws after they have been granted. Our liquor laws, the continued, are most admirable; they are God-given laws. They prohibit the sale of liquor to a drunkard. They provide that no Reguor be sold to persons under twenty one. Ho buy or sell liquor on Sunday, the one day out of seven that is consecrated to God is strictly forbidden by our laws. The lawfu sale of liquors is restricted to certain hours every day. If the treating system were abolished, he lieve our laws would be as restrictive in hematers as justice toward individual rights of liquors is restricted to certain hours every day. If the treating system were abolished, he lieve our laws would be as restrictive in the native as justice toward individual rights of the country to observement of laws, then ado not till marnathee, he said. But remembers hould be advocate the abolition of the laws of our country to observe the laws of our country continually violated, by the sale of liquor at forbidden times to abuse of the law. That idea is a false one. The saw of our country continually violated, by the sale of liquor at forbidden times or to PATHER KEHOE ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION

Right Rev. Bishop transfer which proves ence more, that human anticipations are some times false. Thank God!

The retreat preached by Rev. Fr. Lacasse, O. M. J. has been a real triumph. Every one has been taithful to profit by it. Those among our fugities—speaking people who understand Fr. neh did not fail to assist at the lively and one urerque, enlightening and moving instructions of the Rev. Father. A similar course of extraordinary instructions and lectures is now being delivered in Edmonton, The Rev. Father will spend the Lenten season in the diocese. He is not expected to be through before the second Sunday after Easter.

As a token of their gratifude for the Jubilee Retreat, and as a sign of their good will, several prominent farmers of Saint Albert intend to give up all their surplus, next fall, towards the Cathedral building fund. A noble example that should be followed every where!

Right Rev Bishep Legal is now engaged on a pastoral visit in the South of Alberta.

A GIRL'S A GIRL FOR A'THAT. Is there a lady in the land
That boasts her rank and a'that
With scoroful eye we pass her by,
And little care for a'that;
For nature's charm shall bear the palmA girl's a girl for a'that.

What though her neck with gems she deck.
With folly's glare and a 'that,
And gaily ide in pomp and pride:
We can dispense with a 'that
An honest heart acts no such part—
A girl's a girl for a 'that.

The nobly born may proudly scorn A lowly lass and a that; A pretty face has far more grace Than haughty looks and a that A bonny maid needs no such aid—A girl's a girl for a' that.

Then let us trust that come it must, And sure it will for a' that, When faith and love, all hearts above, Shall reign supreme and a'that— And every youth confess the truth— A girl's a girl for a' that.

It being desirous from an insurance standjoint to have the risks scattered over a large area, your Board recently made arrangements to open up for business in several of the provinces outside of Ontario. General Agents have been appointed for the Provinces of Quebec, Manitobs and the North West Territories and British Columbia, and in addition several new agencies have been opened in our own province. The gentlemen appointed to these positions are men of tried experience and thoroughly conversant with overy branch of the business. In addition to that, they control a large volume of insurance, of which we are able to get our full share, this being shows by the largely increasing revenue of the Company.

C. Macdonald, who had been connected with the institution ever since its inception.

The report of the inspectors appended hereto show in detail the losses together with the causes, as far as known. The members of the company are to be congratulated on the show ing made under this head. With the exception of the Hull-Ottawa fire (the net loss of which to the company was $9,98.8.6), we have suffered very little by the large conflagrations that have occurred during the past year.

The directors take pleasure in acknowledging the very satisfactory manner in which the agents attend to their duties, and take this opportunity of tendering the thanks of the head office to the company's representatives.

From an examination of the balance sheet, it will be seen that the security for the policy holders has been materially added to. The amount now stands at the sum of $500.633 0t.

Of the directors three, namely, Hon. John Dryden, Rev. G. I. Taylor and Mr. James Gunn, now retire.

Respectfully submitted.

MONTH'S MIND FOR THE LATE MRS. O'CONNOR.

MRS. O'CONNOR.

On Tuesday last Requiem Masses for the repose of the soul of the late Mrs. D. O'Connor, of Pickering, were celebrated in the different churches at which members of the family altended:—St. Francis of Sales, Pickering; the parish church. Albion; St. Joseph's convent, fort William; Mount Carmel. Ont; and the chapels of the Loretto convents.

The late Mrs. O'Connor was about seventy-seven years of age. Her maidenhood was spent in Albion, Ont., where her parents sothed in the early '30's. Two brothers, Messrs. W. and D. Callahan, and two sisters still reside there.

It was there, under the guidance of a truly Catholic father and mother, she had implanted in her heart those seeds of sincere plety which made her whole life a model for ket family and an example tor her friends. She was ever devoted to duty, and all her life long was a nost charitable woman, both in word and deed. She will be missed by many a kind word and deed, and it could truly be sain of her that her left hand knew not what her right hand did, so thoroughly did she hide her virtues, being of a most modest and retiring disposition.

But though Mrs. O'Connor has passed away, she has left an enduring monument, for in the members of her family can be seen redected those traits of character which were so marked a feature of her own life.
