JAMES MASON. Managing Director.

JEREMIAH RYAN, TORONTO.

We regret to announce the sudden and very unexpected death of Jeremiah Ryan, which occurred at his late residence, 250 Farley Ave.
Toronto, on the 19th April.
Although deceased had been complaining of not feeling as well as usual for some time previous, nothing serious was anticipated as he attended to his regular duties as usual. It was therefore a terrible shock to his family when it was discovered that "the dark angel" had once again visited their home while they were sleeping, taking away a loving and devoted father.

Deceased, who was in his sixty-first year, was born in the County Tipperary, Ireland, but came to Canada with his parents when a child of seven years. They settled in Brampton and experienced the hardships and trials of the early piloners.

experienced the naturally early pioneers.

He was married in 1882 to Honorah Griffle, who bore him five children, two of whom survive him, namely, Miss Minnie and W. P.

vive him. namely, Miss Minnie and W. P. lyan of Toronto.

By hard work and perseverance he succeeded in educa ing his children and making for him self and family a comfortable home and living. For many years he was engaged in the coal and wood business in Brampton, retiring from same some nine years ago and spending the last six years of his life in Toronto.

The funeral took place from his late residence on Tuesday. April 21st, to S. Mary's church, where Requiem Mass was celebrated, after which the remains were conveyed by the Grand Trunk Railway to B-ampton and interred in the family plot in the Catholic cemetery.

the carried in the lamily plot in the Catholic cemetery.

Honest, industrious, upright, blessed with a big Irish heart, he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to a neighbor or friend in distress and to welcome in his own inimitable and hospitable manner his many friends to his home. We know that those who knew him in life will not forget to offer up a prayer for the soul of him who has gone perhaps but ashort time before, for we know not the day nor the hour when we may be called on to give an account of our stewardship.

May his soul rest in peace!

PAUL CAMPBELL, KENYON.

Another of Glengarry's most highly respected citizens. Mr. Paul Campbell, idea at his nome, 2a,3rd, Kenyon on Saturday evening April 1Hb, having reached the age of sevenly eight years. The deceased had been ill some considerable time and bore his sufferings with that characteristic spirit true to a man conscious of a proper life spent, death to him being but a happy transition from this world of pain and parting to that glorious life of eternal joy.

The deceased was born and lived and died on the rame lot. 26 3rd Kenyon, his parents being among those sturdy pioneers who left Scotland, the land of their forefathers, and came to the then New World, casting their loss in the old Scotch settlement of Glengary loss a noble soo, his neighbore less time friend, and in the sacredness of the faul be impossible to fill. His relationships will all throughout his edining year the survived by a wife, for whom much his declining year this must have been to him a deep source or pleasure. Thus he lived, and coming to the time of his fellowmen.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning to St. Finnan's cath dral and cemetery, and the large concourse of friends that followed the remains to their last long resting place was a visible expression of the regard with which the large concourse of friends that followed the remains to their last long resting place was a visible expression of the regard with which the deceased was held.

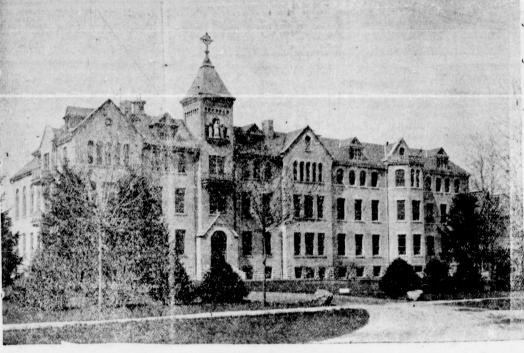

High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Feley. The pall bearers were: A. J. McDonald A. J. McDona lessee of Byward market for several years an octogenarian, and Alex Hunter in the prime of life. Fiat voluntas Tua!

MRS. Bernard Long, Kingston.

The grim hand of death has again visited our community and saken from our midst one of our most estimable and highly respected ladies in the person of Mrs. Bernard Long, who departed this life on Tuesday, April 29th, in the sixthiffth year of her age after an illness lasting several weeks. Deceased lady with her husband and young family came to this parish twenty-seven years ago, having previously lived in the township of Gray where her husband was employed in the lumbering bushiess. Through her amiable disposition and charity of heart she endeared herself not only to her relatives but to all who had the pleasure of her aquaintance. In sickness and in trouble she was always ready and cheerfully willing to lend a helping hand, and few there were who could console the grief stricken ones more than Joseph of Battle Creek, Mich, and her three daughters.
