DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH. THE BISHOP VISITS CAMPBELLFORD AND WARKWORTH.

Special to the CATHOLIC RECON On Saturday, July 13th, His Lordship

On Saturday, July 13th, His Lordabip the Right Rev. R. A. O'Connor, D. D., Bishop of Peterborough, made his first official visit to Campbellford. He was met on the arrival of the afternoon train by the Rev. pastor, Father Casey, and a large number of the parisitioners who, forming into procession, escorted him to the presbytery, whence he proceeded to the church, where the candidates for confirmation were assembled. After questioning them on their knowledge of the Christian doctrine he instructed them on the nature of the sacrament they were about to receive.

This parish, from humble beginnings has reached its present flourishing con-dition in a great measure through the zesl and prudence of our beloved pastor, they were about to receive. Sunday morning His Lordship said the early Mass. At 10:30 High Mass was celebrated by the pestor, at which a very large congregation had assembled, among whom were many of the most prominent Protestants of the town, whom it is our fervent prayer that God in His goodness may long spare to us his

Nor Time, with its ruthless destroying, Shall dim the remembrance, s' dear, Of virtues that, like crystal fountains, E'er sparkled before us so clear, Alluring us on ward, still on ward, To pains that thy selntly feet trod, The light of thy holy example E'er leading us nearer to God. Then still lead us onward, dear mother, For dark asems the way without thee; But Mary, thy "guilding star," ever Thy children's consoler shall be. And 'mid the hot tears that are falling. As saily we oreathe our " rarewell," We raise our dim eyes to the glory Which human tongge nover can tell; And augels seem whispering softly, "When earth's weary exile is o'er, "When extrine work of the state THIS PROTESTANT LAND. The New York Sun of the 29th June, published under the above heading the following letter from Father Elliott, which may be profitably read by those extremists who are constantly telling us that Protestant text books and Protestant instruction alone should be tolerated in the schools of this Protestant Pro

To the Editor of the Sun :

At the commencement exercises of the New York Normal College on Thursday I heard the Rov. Dr. Seymour thank Go I heard the Key, Dr. Seymour tank God in the opening prayer for the good the college is doing in "this Protestant land." I protest against such language being used on such an occasion. That institution cannot be lawfully claimed as an aid to Protestantism, however injuri-ous it mey by made to other religions. The taxes which were paid for putting up the buildings were not Protestant taxes, and the current expenses are not paid by "this Protestant land," but by the
