DOING OVER A HOME

DEAR MISS HAYDON:—Commencing with our living-room, which is also our kitchen and dining room, our table, desk, rocker, arm chair and other kitchen, and a wooden chest, which is used as a seat, are all in a tight oak finish. Piano and bench are of oak mahogany, which seems rather unfortunate but this cannot be helped. The woodwork throughout is of grey, oiled and varnished in the natural grain, the same color as the table and chairs. There is a clock shelf above the writing desk nine inches two feet. I put a picture around it to match the window curtains. I have placed it in the largest space on the wall; some large and some small.

The north-west bedroom has a low old-fashioned fire, a stand and a chair, all in white. I painted the walls and then put enamel over them. The shelf over the fire and a half foot from the floor. I have four books arranged in order side to front clothes on the two shelves of curtain material on this. I at the border of the edge that goes to wall, both the new edges and took the border on the outer edge of shelf with brown lace as a finish. The room has white paper with cream and mauve decoration. The ceiling is white and has a small square of curtain material on it and will not require paper or curtain material.
