WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

The members of the Women's Canadian Club and their guests met in Memorial Hall on Thursday evening of last week. After the reading of the minutes by the Secretary, Mrs. C. S. Everett, a report of the finances of the Club was given by the Treasurer, Miss Richardson. Since October the Club has collected for patriotic purposes $1084.10, certainly a satisfactory amount and deserving of the applause which its announcement excited. In a brief address the President, Mrs. ...

Fred. Andrews, thanked all those who had helped the Club in its patriotic enterprises; and said that, as a reward for duty well performed, an entertainment was about to be given, and she would ask Mrs. Arthur Mason to open with a piano solo. Mrs. Mason delighted the audience with her rendering of "Grillen," by Schumann, and gave as an encore "A Sea Piece," by Macdowell.

A knock was then heard at the door, and a strange and wonderful procession of thirteen ladies marched up the Hall to the platform. It would require a Paris expert, well versed in antique terms, adequately to describe the beauty of the costumes displayed. The ladies announced themselves to be "The Old Maid's Matrimonial Club," and proceeded to hold one of their regular meetings, which was made notable by the entrance of Prof. Pinkerton, proprietor of the "Theatricals and Transform Her." He persuaded several of the old maids to enter his machine with very surprising results.

The caste consisted of: President, Maribelle Lowery, Secretary, Amarilla Heywood, Treasurer, Priscilla Hope, Mrs. Ann Barnes, Mrs. A. A. Hibbard, Mrs. G. H. Stickney, Mrs. F. A. O'Neill, Mrs. A. O'Neill, Mrs. W. Morrow, Miss Green Jack, Miss Ida Graham, Miss Ida Graham, Miss Carrie Rigby, Miss Nellie Stewart, Miss Phyllis Cockburn, Miss Laura Shaw, Professor Pinkerton.

After Transformation Mrs. G. H. Stickney became Mrs. A. Budd, Miss Jack became "Miss Widdall," Miss Kerr.

Mrs. Morrow became Miss D. Lamb, Mrs. A. Hibbard became Miss M. Hibbard, Miss Laura Shaw became Miss M. Douglas, Miss B. Hibbard became Miss E. Finigan, Miss C. Rigby became Miss A. Anderson.

Mrs. Arthur Mason closed a very enjoyable programme with a piano solo, "La Folie," by Paul and Marie Salve the King" was sung.

The president thanked all those who had taken part in the entertainment, and nominated the following committee to take charge of the May Meeting program.

Mrs. M. N. C. Cockburn, convener; Mrs. E. Everett, M. S. Bernard, Miss A. Richardson, and Miss Wade.

A very pleasant 90 min. hour was then enjoyed, while ice cream and cake were served.

It has been decided that in future members of the Club may bring non-alcoholic refreshment to the Club meetings if their guests on payment of 25cts for each guest.
