THE NEWS, ST. JOHN. N. B. FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1909,

UNCHEON UNDER THE WISTARIA BLOSSOMS

NEW YORK, Dec. 27-In the Plaza ballroom, in ale of the orthoepedic ward of the New York Post Graduate Hospital, was given a series of tableaux vivants illustrative of typical and historical scenes in Japan. Great interest was given to the occasion, as there posed in the pictures Japanese men and women residents in New York, and they gave the pictures in a manner true to life. There were also several women prominent in New York society who posed in the tableaux.

The appointments were of great artistic and historical value, the costumes and brocades being loaned from private collections, some having been brought from Japan by Colonel Robert M. Thompson, who went there with his wife and Gaughter, Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell, last winter. The costume worn by Mrs. Pell, who posed in one of the pictures, is of silk centuries old and brocaded with gold. The armor used was loaned from the Metropolitan Mus um, other treasures coming from Dr. Louis L. Seaman's collections.
