Died a Suicide NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Dr. Oliver Livingston Jones, a wealthy retired physician and father of "General" Rosalie Jones, a suffrage leader, died in a hospital this morning of self-inflicted bullet wounds. The police have recorded the case as one of suicide, although members of the family insist that it was an accident.

Dr. Jones shot himself in the head with a revolver at his residence yesterday.

A Treatise. "She was drummed out," "Expelled from the suffragettes?" "Yes; they ascertained that she was merely hating to take off weight and not through any real zeal for the cause."

Extremes Meet. Two signs there are that cloud our way.

As through this world we steer, In summer: "Free Hot unch. To-day; In winter: "Ice Cold Ber."

Outside Job. First Chauffeur—"I had an unusual experience last night."

Second Chauffeur—"What was it?" First Chauffeur—"Carried a cup to the hospital that I hadn't run over."

Mr. Outaway—"Which of these two restaurants shall we patronize?" City—"Well, are you hungry for food or music?"
