

LANGFORD

(From our own correspondent.)
 Rev. Mr. Morrow preached on Sunday and gave a splendid discourse.
 Mr. John W. Westbrook, M. P. P., and his mother, returned last week from Buffalo, after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Sann for a few days.
 Mrs. Frank Day spent Sunday at Mr. James Westbrook's, and also called on other friends.
 Miss Nettie Cole is spending the week with Mrs. James Gillen.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cornell and little daughter, Marjorie are spending this week with Mrs. A. Cornell.
 Mr. D. Westbrook spent Sunday with relatives at Ancaster. Mrs. Westbrook accompanied him home after spending three weeks, with her sister there.
 Mr. and Mrs. Martin Laing were on their wedding trip here from Canaan, Conn.
 Mrs. C. Watson visited in the city over Sunday.
 Mrs. O. F. Templar was calling on Mrs. Trueman Westbrook the other day.
 Miss Heaman, city, was the guest of Miss Elva Vanderlip on Sunday.
 Mrs. and Miss Bush spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Langs.
 Mrs. Trueman Westbrook and Mrs. E. L. Langs are both improving after their recent illness.

MOUNT ZION

(From our own correspondent.)
 Quite a number from here attended the funeral on Monday last of the late Walter Dean of Brantford, but formerly of Harley. Services were held in the Methodist church, Harley, Interment took place in Harley cemetery.
 Mrs. Bonney is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Read of this place.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pamplin spent Saturday with friends in Burford.
 Miss Gertrude Giles was a guest at the Congregational parsonage, Burford on Sunday last.
 Mr. Robert Miles of Norwich spent Sunday at Mr. Newton Crandell's of this place.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Swears spent Sunday under the parental roof.
 Misses Ida and Ruby Crandell spent Sunday at Mr. Pamplin's.
 Mr. Wm. McIntosh of Detroit, Mich., has been renewing acquaintances in this neighborhood, after an absence of twenty-nine years.
 Mrs. J. Swears is on the sick list, also Mr. Reg. Crandell is very ill at time of writing.
 German Liners and Queenstown
 The Hamburg-America line has decided to let the steamers on the Boston service call in future at Queenstown both eastbound and west bound the service to commence probably in February.

QUICKSTEP

"SCHNELLSCHRITT"

As played by SOUSA'S celebrated Concert Band

Allegro.
 Brillante.
 Con spirito.
 FINE

Copyright, by the American Melody Company, New York.

Leggiero.
 ff molto cresc.
 D.C. al Fine.

OLD COUNTRY FOOTBALL

Can You Forecast the Winners?

THE COURIER CUP WINNERS

The Brantford Courier

—OFFERS—

$30.00

IN CASH PRIZES This Week

A fascinating and profitable pastime for the thousands upon thousands of new Canadian citizens of English, Irish and Scotch extraction who closely follow the football struggles in the Old Land week by week.

Realizing that the Old Countrymen in Canada, sportsmen all of them, while greatly interested in all branches of Canadian sport, cannot be weaned away from their interest in the most popular of all public sports in Britain, Association Football, the Courier has decided to give more particulars of these games in the future than it has in the past.

And to enhance the interest of these reports, the Courier offers prizes for those who make the best forecast of the winners in these Old Country competitions each week.

The Courier Sporting Editor has selected the five most important matches from the following four leagues:

ENGLISH FIRST LEAGUE, ENGLISH SECOND LEAGUE, SOUTHERN LEAGUE, SCOTTISH LEAGUE.

LEAVE YOUR ORDER WITH YOUR DEALER OR TELEPHONE 139 AT ONCE

$25.00 IN GOLD

To any subscriber to the Brantford Courier who has a paid-up three months' subscription, who sends in the correct result of the twenty matches in the four leagues mentioned, the sum of $25.00 in gold will be given.

To any reader of the Courier who sends in the correct result of the twenty matches in the four leagues mentioned the sum of $5.00 in gold will be given.

If there is more than one correct answer, the prize money will be divided amongst those who send them in.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

Daily, delivered by Carrier, 25c a month.
 Outside city, delivered to postoffice, $2.00 a year.
 For any other information regarding rates write the Circulation Dept. of the Brantford Courier.

CONSOLATION PRIZE

In the event of no one making such a correct forecast, a consolation prize of $2 will be awarded to whoever comes the nearest to the correct answer.

In the event of two or more matches not being played the money will not be awarded.

The Courier will accept no responsibility in regard to the loss or non-delivery of any attempt submitted, and proof of posting will not be accepted as proof of receipt.

The Courier does not assume any responsibility for any alterations that may be made in the fixtures given in the entry form.

No correspondence will be entered into in connection with the competition, and telegrams will be ignored.

The published decision is final, and competitors may enter on this understanding only.

There will be found on the Sporting Page each day, while these matches last, a coupon, which must be filled out as directed—only one coupon from each day's issue will be allowed any competitor, and they must reach the Courier office for each Saturday's competition not later than 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

No employee or relative of employees will be allowed to enter this contest.

See Page 5 For Coupon!

FIRST SECTION

FORTY-FOUR

TAYLOR'S IS SEA TO-DAY

Dr. Bruce Smith
 His Third Examination of Prisoner

Issues Statement
 in regard to Sheriff's Effect.

A signed statement, the fate of James Taylor this morning by Dr. Bruce Smith, who arrived here hurried here from Kingston, and made the examination of the prisoner's cell last night. The confirmed this opinion was sane, although a

The Doctor's Statement

The examination was secret, and accordingly issued the following to the Sheriff.
 Acting under instructions of the Minister of Justice, I visited the prisoner, James Taylor, on January 21st, for the purpose of making a statement regarding the mental condition of the prisoner. I have made examinations of this prisoner's mental condition and tests ordinarily used for the mental condition of a prisoner under examination.
 As a result of my examination I beg to report that James Taylor is not insane.

From the revolting details of the crime, as related to me, I do not believe that there is any possibility of a sane man committing such a heinous crime as that known as Sadism. It is a degenerate.

The effect of alcoholic on the brain of a degenerate is to establish a habit of committing heinous crimes, which is a palliative to his degenerate.

R. W. BRUCE SMITH
 Accordingly the execution of Taylor will take place tomorrow at 8 o'clock, all preparations being made this week.

The authorities at the jail necessarily been under a strain of the task which must be within the walls of the building, to say the least, regard of the most unpleasant in official life, and become acute as the fatal day draws near.

Hangman Loquacion
 According to Jack Holme here for the hanging of James Taylor tomorrow morning, capital punishment as it is carried out in

Continued on Page

HEARTFELT BY COL

House Adjourns
 After Speeches by Borden and Sir Laurier.

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.—Parliament adjourned almost immediately after prayers yesterday as a mark of respect to the memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The proceedings were brief and impressive. The Premier and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who had been in the House for twenty-four hours, adjourned with a feeling of life and disinterested service. The Premier, in his address, mentioned the death of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and in the course of his memorable tribute to the man who had been a great help to that it was the government's duty to see that the memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not forgotten. He said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was a man of high character and high ability, and that his death was a great loss to the country.

His Work Was For Canada
 Premier Borden arose when the day was called for and called attention to the fact that all members of the House should pay their tribute to the memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "I speak of Sir Wilfrid Laurier," he said, "because, although born in England, he spent his life in Canada."