Hummel's friends left the house, and entering the machine, was whisked away in it. The spectators followed it a short distance and returned to the house as it drew up to the curb again. Then Hummel, holding a handkerchief before his face to prevent a snapshot picture, being taken of him, ran from the basement door, jumped into the tonneau and it dashed away. For about three hours, he took a ride around the city, and then surrendered himself to a deputy sheriff, who took him by an unfrequented route to Blackwell's Island. He will be put at work in the bakery. BRONCHIAL TROUBLES COST OF LIGHTS
