AT A RIPE OLD AGE

One of Chatham's oldest and most respected citizens passed away Wednesday in the death of Oswald Clark, of Colborne street. Deceased was 87 years of age and had been living with his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Simpson, for the past five years. Death was due to dropsy.

He is survived by two sons and three daughters. The sons are Thomas and William, both of this city. The daughters are Mrs. Foster, of Walkerville Junction; Mrs. John Simpson and Mrs. James Haley, both of this city.

Funeral services will be held at the house on Sunday at two o'clock. Deceased was a member of the Anglican church.

LOST HIS VALUABLES

It is said that there is a certain young man in the city who is mourning the loss of a diamond pin and a gold watch. It is also said that he believes they are in the possession of a couple of girls, and he knows he didn't give them away as a present. He was in their company last night, and he remembered having his watch and pin with him. The young man in question isn't saying much about the incident, and is not very anxious to talk. He hasn't yet divulged the names of the girls.

The milkman believes that to the pure all things should be pure.

Throat Coughs

Ask your doctor about these throat coughs. He will tell you how deceptive they are. A tickling in the throat often means serious trouble ahead. Better explain your case carefully to your doctor, and ask him about your taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Then do as he says. Get the best medicine, always.

We have no secret! We publish the formulae of all our preparations.

HAD EATEN ANGEL CAKE

Edna Shaw Aged 12
Toronto Found Dead
In Bed

POTAMINE POISONING

Toronto, Feb. 15.—Poisoned by angel cake is the alleged cause of the death under pathetic circumstances of 12-year-old Edna Shaw, daughter of Emanuel Shaw at 107 Spadina avenue yesterday morning.

Edna, with her sister Eva, aged 18, retired on Thursday night about 10.30, after spending a night at the rink. Before going to bed each partook of some angel cake and tarts, which were on the dining-room table. Both were in the best of health and spirits.

Yesterday morning about ten minutes after seven Mrs. Shaw went to the girls' room on the second floor to call them for work. She was horrified to find both girls apparently dead.

Her screams brought her 13-year-old son, and Dr. McCormack was immediately summoned. Edna was dead, but Eva was only unconscious.

Other physicians were called, and the older girl was given treatment with success, consciousness returning about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Coroner Graham will hold an inquest.

LOST IN THE WILDS

Surgeon Flood, R. N. W. M. P., Went to His Fate In Awful Storm—Pitiful Finding of His Dead Body.

Winnipeg, Feb. 15.—Further details of the tragic death of Surgeon Flood, R.N.W.M.P., at Fort Churchill, where he was frozen to death in the great storm of November 29, have been learned from W. Beech, the courier who brought the first tidings to civilization. According to Beech's story—Dr. Flood, Major Moodie and Engineer Thibadeau, who had been surveying the harbor and dock room for the Federal Government at Fort Churchill, left home on November 23 for the purpose of exploring for timber. When they left the weather was fair and everything looked favorable for them. They had prepared a camp up country and proceeded to that, but when they arrived they found they had dropped their grub box on the way and were without food. Laughingly the fact was noticed by Dr. Flood and it was thought that it was not far away. With a light heart the doctor said that he would go back for it, and he jocularly treated Major Moodie's offer of assistance. He took the dogs back and as he disappeared over the snow the last of him was seen until his dead body was found by a mournful search party three days later.

The search party found that he had guided the dogs and when they instinctively turned towards the camp he turned their heads away and went further into the wilds as the faithful leader took the train in the direction indicated by his driver.

When the body was found it was a pitiful sight. Flood lay in the snow and his faithful leader lay alongside of him, also frozen stiff. Faithful to the last, the dog had tried to keep his master's body warm and had perished. The responsibility of a leader of a dog train is felt by that animal, and when Flood dropped in his tracks the other dogs bit themselves free of the harness and each other and sought safety, while the leader lay down beside his master and with him died in the snow.

The storm was the worst that Mr. Beech has ever seen and he spent 25 years in Winnipeg. The thermometer fell to 25 below and the wind blew at the rate of 60 miles an hour. The damp atmosphere along the coast of the bay makes 25 below extremely cold and much worse than 40 below in Winnipeg.

The body of Flood was buried at the barracks at Churchill and his is the first grave and the first death in the history of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police in the Hudson Bay district.

Dr. Flood was 30 years of age, and went north from Quebec, where he was born. A brother is now resident in Winnipeg.

Frozen to Death.
Moose Jaw, Sask., Feb. 15.—Alexander Allen, a rancher of Willow Bunch, who found Wednesday frozen to death, one mile from his home. It is supposed that he had been looking for horses caught in a storm and lost his way. He came from Dakota about two years ago.

Two Tragic Deaths.
Ottawa, Feb. 15.—A telegram was received yesterday announcing that a German lad had reported at Battleford the death of two men in his employ, 90 miles north of Battleford. One man went crazy, tried to murder the other, and then shot himself. The second man was found dead in his shack with a shotgun between his knees. The police are now investigating the matter.

Succumbs to Injuries.

Sault Ste. Marie, Feb. 15.—Frank Mahaffey died yesterday of the injuries received Wednesday when he was caught in a coal slide at the Canadian Pacific yards.

Funeral Sleigh Goes Through Ice.

Pictou, Feb. 15.—While returning from Kingston with the remains of George Clarke, who had died in Kingston Hospital, Manley Martin of Hotel Tecumseh here, and Anson Farrington of Milford drove into a crack in the ice near Glen Island, five miles from here. The occupants of the sleigh got to shore safely, but the two horses were drowned.

The social climber believes that all's well that ends well.

Fulton Irwin in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives. The happy couple left for their home amidst the good wishes of their friends.

The first carnival of the season was held in the skating rink last night and was a decided success in interest and numbers. The costumes were numerous and artistic. The judges were justified in awarding the first ladies' prize to Miss Celia Secord, who looked charming in bridal attire carrying a bouquet of carnations. Mr. Albert O'Neil, representing Canada, carried off the first gentlemen's prize. The tonic prize was given to Mr. Nate Cornwall, who made an excellent scare crow, while Miss Edith Stewart and Master McGrath won the children's prizes.

Two loads of young people from Dresden and Bothwell attended the carnival.
