

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 23, 1904.

Cleanings by Acadian News Gatherers.

The address of Mr Leslie R. Paine, architect, for the winter months, is Aylesford, N. S.

The Browning Club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mrs Huntington, Prospect street.

The death is announced in England, of Rev. Dr. Meynell, an uncle of Mrs H. W. White of Grand Pre.

A chance for the ladies is to be given on Saturday evening, when a 'Leap Year' skate is to be given in Aberdeen rink.

Cous. Porter has authorized THE ACADIAN to state that he has no intention of being a candidate in the Mayoralty election.

The letter of 'Independent,' which appears on page four, was intended for last week's paper, but was unavoidably crowded out, although in type.

The pulpit of the Methodist church will be occupied on Sunday next by Rev. J. D. Spidel, the pastor, Rev. Mr Johnson, taking Mr Spidel's appointments at Gaspereau.

The ladies of Greenwich church are to meet on Saturday evening at that place, on Wednesday evening of next week, to which the public is invited, and a good time is assured.

First Quarterly Session of Grand Division, Sons of Temperance of N. S., for 1904, will be held at Peggwash, Tuesday, January 26th. Officers report show tide of prosperity unabated.

Henry Levy cabled Jan. 18th that the S. S. Florence and Montrose had arrived and apples sold as follows: Ben Davis, 24s. to 16s., Ribbons, 20s to 23s., Russets, 20s. to 23s., Kings, 21s. to 23s.

There will be a meeting of the Wolfville Mechanics Association in the Temperance Hall on Saturday, Jan. 23rd, at 7.30 o'clock, p. m. By order of the President.

H. A. FRICK, Secy.

The induction of Rev. L. D. Morse as pastor of the Wolfville Baptist church took place last evening. Rev. Mr Morse filled the pulpit last Sunday, morning and evening, and gave two excellent addresses.

Last Monday's hockey match between Windsor and Turp resulted in a victory of 4 to 3 in favor of the former team. It was the third game of the provincial league series for Windsor and was one of the best exhibitions of hockey ever seen in the town.

Sawyer; The Atomic Theory of Dalton, by Prof. R. H. Keylock; Some recent Theories, by Prof. E. R. Halsey. All interested in the subject are cordially invited to be present.

Referring to our Selling Out sale in another column, we would say that right here and up to the time to get Seasonable Goods such as Women's Warm-lined Walking and Skating Boots, Men's and Boys' Hockey Boots, Men's, Boys' and Youths' Larrigans, Full Boots Shoes and Slippers for Men and Women, Overshoes, etc., etc. We are giving big mark downs in everything in our line, and they won't last long. The usual arrangement for free returns on the Dominion Atlantic and Central Railways has been made. Buy a single ticket to Bridgewater, procuring a Standard Certificate.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—Eight room cottage on Westwood avenue. All modern improvements. Apply to C. R. H. STARR.

Complaint has been made to THE ACADIAN that certain boys in town are making a practice of going from house to house soliciting money in the interests of needy persons. It is needless to say that the money thus collected never finds its way to the persons for whose benefit it is donated. This is very annoying to those whose names are used, some of whom while deserving of help would be the last to ask for it. The public should guard themselves in view of these acts, and be careful how their donations are made.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

MR. EDITOR:—In THE ACADIAN of Jan. 1st appeared a communication dealing with matters pertaining to the town and offering some advice which, evidently, he thought to be of importance to the ratepayers. This communication was signed, 'One Qualified,' but he omitted to say what he was qualified for, evidently not to discuss town affairs. One point, for instance, he refers to the overdrawn bank account. For the rate-payers to withhold the payment of taxes and then blame the council for an overdraw in the bank is hardly fair. What does he expect the Council to pay the town bills with? The only thing he can blame the Council with in this connection is that they did not sue every ratepayer whose taxes were not paid on the 30th of Nov. This, of course, would be distasteful to the Council as we can readily see. The Council may make mistakes as probably each succeeding Council will do, but do not blame them for the shortcomings of others.

MR. J. E. Hales, of this town, was the holder of the lucky number which drew the fine range given by the Toronto Spice Co. through their agent Mr. T. L. Harvey. This prize was given to induce the sale of the 'Oxford' Baking Powder, every purchaser of a tin being entitled to choose a number. The lucky number was enclosed by the company in a securely sealed envelope so that no one had a chance to receive any advantage. On the sale of the last can of the lot of 300 lbs. last week, Mr Harvey invited the editor of THE ACADIAN to break the seal, the result being as noted above.

(Contributors to this department will be glad to receive.)

Mrs Andrew Borden and Miss Julia Borden have returned to their home at Grand-Pre, from Halifax, where they spent the Christmas holidays.

Mrs Laura J. Potter, of Canning, has gone to attend the mid-winter conference of the Field Worker's Department of the International S. S. Convention, held at Portland, Me., where she is to deliver an address. She expects to be absent several weeks.

Mr Percy Pincus has gone to Nevada, in company with Mr Blair of Grayville Ferry, and has secured a situation with Mr Blair's brother-in-law, owner of a mining property. The boys are guaranteed $3.00 in the office and store to start, with a promise of promotion so soon as they are qualified for it.

Mr E. F. Eagles arrived home from Boston on Saturday last, on a short visit to his parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Eagles. Mr Eagles left Wolfville about twenty years ago and has not been home for ten years. He is one of our Wolfville boys who has been successful in his new home, being a member of the firm of Eagles & Irving, masons and plasterers, who do a large business in the New England states. Mr Eagles' many friends here were glad to welcome him home, and trust that so many years may not elapse before his next visit to Wolfville.

Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Eagles celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on Monday of this week. They were married on Jan. 18, 1854, by the late Rev. Father Harding, their marriage being the last performed by him before his death. Both Mr. and Mrs. Eagles are wonderfully well and active, the former although in his eightieth year presenting a more youthful appearance than many men twenty years younger. THE ACADIAN extends congratulations to Capt. and Mrs. Eagles and trusts they may yet be spared a number of years of health and activity.

The annual meeting of the Wolfville branch of the Lord's Day Alliance was held in the Baptist church on Monday evening, President Chase was in the chair and all the churches of the town were represented. The scripture reading was given by Rev. George Tufts, and Rev. L. D. Morse offered prayer. The president in a short address outlined the operations of the year. Mr I. B. Oakes, the secretary, also read a report. Addresses were given by Rev. R. F. Dixon, Rev. G. F. Johnson, Rev. E. M. Dill and Rev. L. D. Morse. Rev. Geo. Tufts also gave an interesting address concerning the 'New England Sabbath.' The president and secretary were re-elected for the ensuing year, and an executive of these officers and two members for each of the churches of the town was appointed.

FAIRPLAY.

Having reference to civic politics, we understand that Mayor DeWitt will not be opposed for re-election, and we are very glad to give currency to the rumor that George H. Wallace, W. Marshall Black and Watson H. Doncanson have consented to fill seats at the council board, during the ensuing year, if elected, and that their cards will appear latter on. All of which is encouraging.
