SAVE FOOD
In a time needing food economy many people are not getting all the nourishment they might from their food. It is not how much you eat, but much you assimilate, that does you good.
The addition of a small teaspoonful of Bovril to the diet as a peptogenic before meals leads to more thorough digestion and assimilation and thus saves food, for you need less.

Democracy
Since the outbreak of the present European struggle the principles of democracy have commanded considerable attention. The one man power now appears to be on the wane and despotic rule will be long numbered as past history. And surely this is a bright era that has dawned upon us and must be beneficial in its effects.
But whilst nations are rejoicing in the changes that are coming about there are perils in connection with democracy which are not to be lost sight of.
Two countries in Asia and Europe have made advancement from despotism to democracy and we see strikingly exhibited in them both the dangers that loom up when a change is effected. China in Asia is perfectly helpless. Why? The education of her people is a hide bound antiquarianism. Russia in Europe is in the same predicament. She is helplessly stung against internal troubles that threaten her ruin.
What is wrong with these two countries? In some respects they are perhaps the greatest nations of the world but their people lack education. To be prosperous under democratic rule requires that the people be intelligent. Not only that morality prevail but intellectual endowment are to be cultivated as well.
It is a good sign to see the world becoming democratic. But in order to succeed under democratic rule the people must be taught. Not only to a certain extent in literature, arts and sciences, but also to make us just to the poorer and ruling and reigning over all.

All Canadian Women Will Be Given Vote.
In the coming session of parliament a measure of general woman suffrage for Canada is proposed. This was outlined by Sir Robert Borden in parliament last year and subsequently during the recent election.
It was learned last week that such action had been decided on and over 1,500,000 women voters will be added to the list.
This was one of the demands of the organized labor representatives in their recent conference with the government.
In five provinces of the Dominion Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia, women already have the right to vote.

Pot Boilers.
(Los Angeles Times)
It is a fact recognized in literature that some of the productions of authors that made them famous were dashed off without any idea on the part of the writers that they would achieve success. William Allen White became famous with his editorial on 'What is the Matter with Kansas,' that he threw off one day and hung on the copy book of the Emporia Gazette, to be used in an emergency, as he wanted to go fishing. Eugene Field wrote 'Little Boy Blue' as a space filler. Henry Clay Work wrote 'Grandfather's Clock,' which he considered the worst rubbish that ever came from his pen, and it is sung over the world. Robert Louis Stevenson wrote 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde,' as a shilling shocker to earn him money while he never did anything better, but he never did.

A Military Phrase.
Mr. Quibbles had engaged a new office boy. He was a little looking youth but Mr. Quibbles prides himself that they aren't such an anxiety as the smart brand. One of Maddock's tasks was to copy a letter, as is the custom in lawyers' offices, the letter and copy were read over together. 'Dear sir,' read Maddock, 'I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th ult.' 'Maddock,' interrupted Mr. Quibbles, 'What does ult. mean?' For a moment an expression that was absolutely blank overspread the features of the new youth; then it cleared and a smile of conscious knowledge took its place.
'Please, sir,' he said, 'it's what they say to the soldiers when they want 'em to stop.'

Every One A Farmer.
In the labor force represented by people in cities, towns and villages is the principle hope of any large increase in the production of food in Canada in 1918. There must be readjustment between producers and non-producers if the present dangerous situation is to be relieved. The Canadian farmer today is doing his utmost. Even the inducement of higher prices would not result in much greater production, because greater production is for him a physical impossibility under present conditions of labor scarcity. The dwellers in cities and towns must now indeed grave and now is the time when plans must be made for the coming season.—Food Bulletin.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION
Canton, Ohio.—'I suffered from a small trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well. My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. I relieved me from my troubles. I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is suffering with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them.'—Mrs. MARY BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E. Canton, Ohio.
Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.
If you would like to get a free copy of our book, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years' experience is a 4-page service.

The Cost of Milk Production and the Farmer's Profit.
FARMERS' FARMERS NOTE.
The principles of cost accounting in manufacturing should be applied to agriculture, not that the farmer always sell above cost, for he can sell below cost, but that he know that the average cost of production will at least equal the cost of the milk he produces. This will allow him to break even. Were the results of such cost accounting for the business of milk production known to the farmer as well as the consumer, the former would better himself to reduce his cost of production.
The farmer is working in producing a staple food product, won't he care his bid criticism and be willing to pay fair price for milk which is one of the cheapest foods.
To find the cost of milk production a simple accounting, because of the complexity of the conditions surrounding the industry, but the importance of the product has led to many investigations with the following average results using present day feed and labour charges:—

EXPENDITURE PER COW.

Feed at cost prices	$22.90
Labour per cow including handling of milk	$55.27
Interest and depreciation on herd per cow	$10.41
Insurance, repairs and depreciation on buildings	$8.74
Depreciation on equipment	50
Losses for abortion, tuberculosis, pneumonia, etc.	$1.95
Veterinary services and drugs	86
Cash sundries	1.86
Added interest of owner in excess of that exhibited by hired help	64.00
Total	$170.26

RECEIPTS PER COW.

6167 pounds of milk at 20c per gallon	$123.34
12 tons manure at $2.00 per ton	$24.00
Total	$147.34

Under the above conditions milk costs the farmer 27.50 per gallon or 61c per quart, at most he is selling it for 20c per gallon or 7.25c per quart. The profit left to the farmer is very little over the value of the manure for his farm. In an investigation conducted on twenty-five dairy farms keeping an average of 20 cows, the average profit per cow per year was $27.23 while on the twenty-five dairies, 25 per cent reported no profit whatever.
While 6167 pounds of milk per cow per year may seem a small yield to some farmers, it is in reality a very good average, exceeding the average for Eastern Canada, by 2,000 pounds. The farmer's remedy lies in increasing the average production of his herd.

Longing For Spring.
The winter is a mean old thing. With ice and snow and blizzards; I'm longing for the breath of spring, with heat and mild and gizzard. The wind that shrieks across the moor grows colder still and stronger; it seems to me I can't endure this winter graft much longer. Oh, winter is a beastly bore! I will spring ever come, I wonder when I can shut the furnace door, and let it go thunder! Oh, Gentle Annie, speed your step, and chase out winter burly! Display some energy and pep, and get here bright and early. My ears are freezing as they flap—each winter I expect it, and there are frost bites on my map, where sideboards don't protect it. The house is cold, and if I burn some anthracite to heat it, some grin conservator calls the turf, and tells me I should be it. At night I dream of birds and buds, of streams that glance and quiver, and waking up put on frozen duds, and stand around and shiver. I dream of meadows green and kind, with lambs and kiddered friskers, and wake at break of day to find a snow drift in my whiskers. I dream of valleys sweet with hay, and prospects fair and pleasing, and wake upon a winter day, to find my trillies frosted. Oh, I am sick of snow and ice, of blasts that long have tossed me; produce the spring and den the price—It's worth what it would cost me!

The clothes of a stylish man are shaped to him, while the stylish woman is shaped by her clothes.
When a girl is pretty why waste time in learning to make beads?

Good Year for Made-Overs.
Dresses made entirely of velvet or velveteen are considered very smart for girls of all ages, from five or six years to the twelve-year-old, but when other materials than velvet or velveteen are selected, it is usually noted that either two colors or materials are combined.
Plain serge may be combined with plaid, velvet or velveteen may be combined with serge or wool jersey or with taffeta, etc.
This state of affairs as regards styles serves the same excellent purpose in dressing the younger members of the family as in outfitting the grownups. That is economy may be served without appearance suffering, as last-season garments may be brought attractively up-to-date at slight additional expense.

Liver Was All Upset and There Was Pain Under the Shoulder-blade — Two Interesting Letters.
So many people suffer from derangements of the liver that we feel sure of these two reports. Just recently received, will prove interesting reading and valuable information to many readers of this paper.
Mrs. F. L. Harris, Keasley P.O., Sask., writes: 'I was suffering from liver trouble—had a heavy pain under one shoulder-blade all the time and my eyes, so concluded to try some of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and before I had taken one the box the pain had left me and I commenced to gain in flesh, and by the time I had taken two boxes I was completely cured and felt like a new person. My trouble was caused by heavy work, out-of-doors, and, of course, heavy eating and constipation. I would advise anyone suffering from kidney or liver trouble to give Dr. Chase's Pills a trial.'
Mrs. Charles Terry, Tread, Ont., writes: 'Before I was married I was troubled with enlargement of the liver. My liver became so enlarged that you could detect the swellings on either side, and it was only with difficulty that I could get my clothes on. A friend advised me to get Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and take them. I commenced this treatment, and used nine boxes, which cured me at that time. Then, about two or three years afterward I was troubled again with the swelling, but only on my right side. I secured some more Kidney-Liver Pills, and took them, within a few days I was cured. I have not been troubled in this way since. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anyone having kidney or liver trouble.'
'We have also found Dr. Chase's Kidney and Purifying excellent for coughs and colds. In fact, any of Dr. Chase's medicines which we have used have been good.'
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, five a box. For sale at all dealers, or Edmondson Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
