Mrs. Stairs is survived besides her husband by three daughters, Miss Edith, of the Royal Bank of Canada, Halifax; Mrs. Ralph Davidson, of Tofield, Alta.; and Mrs. Wesley Bristoi, Halifax; and one son, William H. Stairs, of Tofield, Alta.; who have the sincere sympathy of the community.

The funeral was held at 2 o'clock this (Thursday) after noon and was very largely attended. Beautiful floral offerings bore testimony to the sympathy of loving friends. The service was fittingly conducted by Rev. G. A. Logan, pastor of the Upper Canard Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was for so long a devoted member, Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, D. D., pastor of St Andrews United church, Wolfwille, assisting. Interment was made

SECOND IN MARBLE CON-

Jacon Coldwell Lost Dominion Mar-ble Championship by One Point

The citizens of Wolfville are much pleased with the showing made by Jason Coldwell in the Dominion Marble Championsnips at Toronto last Friday Although he did not win the championships at Toronto last Friday Although he did not win the championship he did not make the next mearest competitor, Henry Endelstein, of Ottawa, had only 15 points. Despite his defeat, Coldwell was lauded by many as the best player in the tourney. He did not miss the hole once in his rolls and he made a perfect score of ten on one of the pitches.

Two thousand spectators were at the big theatre, where the match was held, and all of the contestants were accorded great receptions.

Coldwell carried a smile throughout the crowd. Nothing seemed to worry him and he was given a great ovation by the big crowd who were eager to see him win.

Jason arrived home Monday evening and was met at the railway station by his churhs of the Wolf Cubs, who escorted him to his home in triumph.

Cinderella

2,600 years ago the substance of this immortal story of childhood was familiar to the people of Greece. As they knew it, Rhodope was bathing when an eagle pounced on one of her slippers and carried it to Memphis where King Psammericus was holding a court of justice. Struck with the exquisite beauty of the shoc, he offered a
