Blue Bird Tea brings Happiness.
The Acadia hockey team were badly beaten by the Kentville team in the latter town last Friday evening, the score being 10 to 2. The Acadia team was weakened by two of its players not being able to make the trip on account of exams.

In the account of the Kentville-Wolfville game in our last week's issue the name of Gil. Rand was inadvertently omitted from the Wolfville line-up. Gil has been a conscientious worker on the forward line all season and has several times scored for the local team.

A commercial traveller who was in town last week told a somewhat sensational story of a Wolfville boy who one cold night recently presented himself at the Hantsport Hotel and asked accommodation for the night. He told that he had been turned out of his home here and had walked to Hantsport, intending to proceed to Windsor. Mr. Wall, the kind proprietor of the hotel at Hantsport, put the boy up for the night and next morning telephoned the parents that he had provided their son with a ticket and sent him back to Wolfville. This, at least, is how the story was told THE ACADIAN.

FRUIT GROWERS BADLY HIT

The news that the affairs of the well known fruit firm of Northard & Lowe, London, had been placed in the hands of a receiver was heard with consternation by many in the valley on Tuesday. For many years the firm, which is one of the oldest and was regarded as one of the strongest in England, has been an important factor in the handling of the apple crops of the Annapolis Valley. Formerly the firm was represented in Nova Scotia by Mr. C. R. H. Starr, of this place, and latterly by our townsman, Mr. J. D. Sherwood. Donald M. Barton, of London, has been appointed to look after the affairs of the company, and he is represented here by Col. A. Montgomery, of Halifax. Unless large assets are available the losses, it is said, will be very heavy, bearing in some cases upon the producer and in other cases upon the agent. The failure of the firm is regarded as one of the most serious crises in connection with business interests that has occurred for many years. It is understood that the Maurice Lowe Orchard Co. is in no way implicated.

THE APOLLO DUO

(Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells)
Will be heard in the Baptist church, Wolfville, Saturday evening, February 7, 1925, in an exceedingly interesting and clever programme, musical and literary.
The programme will include readings, pianologues, pianoforte and Saxophone solos and vocal solos.
While popular and most enjoyable the programme is strictly high class.
"Mr. and Mrs. Wells gained fame and recognition as the leading members of the Apollo Concert Company which for more than ten years was one of the most popular lyceum attractions on the platform. This is the second year that they have appeared as a Duo and their programme is as entertaining and enjoyable as that of the larger group."
They have appeared successfully in towns and cities all over the United States, Canada, Panama, Australia and New Zealand.
The price of admission is Seventy-Five cents. Tickets are on sale at Rand's.

MISS ARCHIBALD'S GIFT ACKNOWLEDGED BY QUEEN

Miss Rosamond deW. Archibald of this town has received royal acknowledgment of her book "The King's English Drill" in a letter from the Queen.
Miss Archibald had a copy especially bound in white kid with lavender shawl, surrounded by maple leaves in gold and surmounted by the British Coat of Arms for presentation to Her Majesty at Christmas. She did this at the urging of friends of her work who realized that it should receive acknowledgment from the highest authority in the British Commonwealth, having already been vice-regally received at Ottawa last January.
Kind letters of appreciation and encouragement are daily coming to its author from business offices, schools both private and public, parents in the home and from lending colleges and universities in the United States as well as in Canada.
Mr. Paton who recently lectured at Wolfville in his Canadian tour wrote a very enthusiastic letter to Miss Archibald, an excerpt being: "You are quite right. It is only by habituation that we learn the right use of language and your book gives us a Drill manual for the use of a Drill Sergeant."
The royal letter of acknowledgment is as follows:
Buckingham Palace,
8th January, 1925.
Miss Rosamond M. deW. Archibald,
Dear Madam,—I have had the honour of submitting to the Queen the letter which you were so good as to address to Miss Knox on the 13th of December last. In reply I am to convey to you Her Majesty's sincere thanks for the beautifully bound copy of your work "The King's English Drill", which you have been so good as to offer her.

It gives the Queen great pleasure to accept your book, and I am to assure you that Her Majesty much appreciates the kind terms of your communication. I am, dear madam,
Yours very truly,
Harry Verney.

ELECTION CARD

Having been presented by a requisition signed by a very representative number of rate payers of the Town of Wolfville, asking me to accept nomination as councillor for the coming term, I have consented to do so.
I would appreciate the support of the voters at this time, and take it as opportunity of stating, that due to the fact that I am rated as one of the largest tax payers, naturally I have in mind the successful financing of the town affair.
I may not be able to see you personally before the day of election, but if elected through your support, I will do all in my power to further the best interest of the Town.
Sincerely yours,
C. H. PORTER.

ELECTION CARD

To the Electors of the Town of Wolfville:
At the request of a large number of citizens of the town we have consented to offer ourselves as candidates for Councillors in the forthcoming election. We feel that Councillors are trustees of the people and if elected, we pledge ourselves to work in every way for the best interests of the town.
Wolfville's greatest need today, under present conditions, is men who are willing to devote their time and energies to the Municipal affairs, regardless of personal sacrifice.
