LEO'S, The Sales Conductor IN CHARGE OF SALE

We have decided to discontinue our business in Gents' Furnishings and Hats and confine our efforts entirely to Boots and Shoes for the entire family. Therefore we have turned over to Leo's the celebrated sale conductor, the entire stock in our store 223 Falls Street, Niagara Falls, N.Y., included in this stock is $10,000 worth of Men's high grade foot-wear and which we have also instructed Mr. Leo to sell absolutely, regardless of cost entering into consideration. Every article in this store must be sold within the next 15 days. Many retailers and jobbers have made us substantial offers for this big stock but we want the public to benefit—the public who stood by us all these years.

THE HUB

So Here I Am

With a signed contract to dispose of this $21,600 stock in just fifteen days. Can I do it? I am given a free hand. The only stipulation is that the stock must be sold. I make the prices—am not afraid to show profits.

Crash! Smash!! Bang!!!

I'm determined to succeed. I have taken the bit in my teeth; nothing can stop me. Down go prices. I am preparing a merchandise feast for you people of Niagara Falls, N. Y., district such as you never had before.

LEO'S

LISTEN TO ME

I bear a message to you—a message filled with human throbbing interest in every word as you have read by Hub's announcement he has turned stock over to me to sell quick and fast. As consequence a sale will commence on Friday, May 16th, that means something to every citizen in Niagara Falls, N.Y., district. No matter how plentiful the dollars are the average man or woman is always keen to save money. With this gigantic sale of the Hub I am going to give you the chance I am going to smash prices to smithereens and if you will follow the crowd on Friday, May 16th, or the next day, I will prove to your satisfaction I am speaking nothing but the truth. Wait for this sale and make your dollar do the work of two or three.
