Last Sunday being Palm Sunday,

Last Sunday being Palm Sunday, the ceremonies peculiar to the day were appropriately carried out at St. Dunstan's Cathedral. Precisely at 10 o'clock his Lordship the Bishop dressed in Cope and Mitre and carrying his Crosic, subsred the Sanctuary and immediately acconded the sharm bleasing of the palms. He was assisted by Revds. F. X. Gallant and A. E. Burke, as Deacon and Sunday, respectively, and Rev. A. J. McIntyre as Master of Ceremonies. The vestments worn were and violet color. At the conclusion of the bleasing, the Bishop and clergy formed in precession, moved down towards the Church door and passed out. The hymn Gloria, law, et hemor, was here sung by the clergy without and the cantors within. This being fluighed, the procession re-entered and moved up the Church. High Mass was then sung by Father McIntyre, and an appropriate sermon preached by Father. then sung by Father McIntyre, and an appropriate sermon preached by Father Gallant. Mowers and Reapers.

SANDFORD'S

THE object of this finvention recently Patented, is to provide a Simple, Durable and Efficient CUTTING AP-PARATUS for Mowers and Reapers in which is employed a finger bar adapted to receive and securely hold a removable stationary cutting bar, and also receive and hold a reciprocating cutter bar for co-operating with the stationary cutter bar and to permit both cutter bars to be readily removed and replaced at the operator's will.

FIRST.—Said patented improvement can easily be placed on any Mower or Reaper manufactured.

SCOND.—It tends to sharpen itself, Thinn.—It is impossible to clog it.

FOURTE.—It lessens the draft on teams from 25 to 33½ per cent., thereby greatly decreasing the wear on goar of machine.

Particulars will be given in Handbills and first round. Island Chief's advertisement week. Young Dean will take a limited numbe of Marcs at his own stable at moderat fare. This colt is a fair size, vory stylist an excellent roadster, and can trot is about 2.0. April 21, 1886—21 ROBERT FITZSIMONS.
