It is believed in shipping circles that the high prices and the increasing difficulty in obtaining an adequate supply of coal for steaming purposes at Algiers, Colombo, and other ports of call on the way to the east, will result in sailing vessels succeeding the tramp steamer in the carrying business. The stock of coal at the stations along the route is reported as scarcely sufficient to meet the wants of the regular liners and war vessels. As a result the price of coal has reached an almost prohibitive point for tramp steamers. Concerning this matter the Government says: "Are we coming soon more to a day of sail ships, billowing sails and really truly jolly jacks, instead of unwholesome and freight hauliers?"

NO TRUTH IN IT. The story regarding eight Canadian invalids found sleeping in Hyde Park, London, and without money or food fell flat as the story is untrue in almost every particular. KING HUMBERT ASSASSINATED. King Humbert, of Italy, has been assassinated. He was shot at the town of Monza, nine miles N. E. of Milan at 10.45 Sunday evening by a man named Angelo Bresci di Grato, and died in a few minutes. The king had been attending a distribution of prizes in connection with a gymnastic competition. He had just entered his carriage with his aide-de-camp amid the cheers of the crowd, when he was struck by three revolver shots fired in quick succession. One pierced the heart of his Majesty, who fell back and expired in a few minutes. The assassin was immediately arrested, and was with some difficulty saved from the fury of the populace. He gave his name as Angelo Bresci, describing himself as of Prati, in Tuscan. He is said to be an Anarchist, and to have been in London in 1898. Humbert's body has been taken to Rome, and will be buried in the Pantheon. Victor Emmanuel, his son, and successor to the throne was off the coast of Greece, and started for Italy. COL. HERCHMER DISMISSED. It is reported that Lieutenant-Colonel Herchmer, who went out to South Africa in command of the second battalion of the Canadian mounted rifles, and recently returned on leave of absence after a disagreement with Hutton, has been dismissed from the office of commissioner of the North West Mounted Police. The charges against him being insubordination to a superior officer in the field.

In South Africa. The War office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts:—"French and Hutton continued their pursuit on July 25. The former crossed Oliphant's River and from the high ground on the right bank he opened fire on the main road which was blocked for several miles with horsemen and wagons. The enemy's rear was then seven miles north. The mounted forces were still west of the river. Night being closing in, the rain was falling in torrents and so it was impossible to follow. The night was terrible. In addition to the rain a strong east wind made the bivouac most uncomfortable. The men were obliged to sleep in the open. The men made light of hardships and were in famous spirits when I saw them yesterday. Hutton has completely broken down. He found Mrs. Steyn, wife of the ex-President and several of our men whom Dewet had captured at different times and whom he was unable to send to Mafeking. The enemy in the Bechuanaland hills are now closed in upon Beaufort. It is closed to them. Her Majesty is the only line open; and it will not be easy for them to reach there with guns and wagons. Broadwood is still watching Christina Dewet who has taken up a position on high hills near Bellburg, about seven miles south of the Vaal. P. Dewet, a younger brother of Christen, surrendered at Kroonstadt yesterday. Baron reports that the railway to Bank Station where the train was wrecked on July 19 and has been enabled to re-ignite his supplies. Mathews's column which crossed the River-Potter on the railway is now moving on to Potchefstroom. Buller reports that the railway was opened to Heidelberg yesterday, giving us through communication to Natal."

A despatch of the 28th states that Gen. Dewet offered to surrender on condition that he should be permitted to return to his home unharmed. Lord Roberts refused anything but unconditional surrender.

Lord Roberts' latest despatches show that General Buller, Villiers and Cameron surrounded 900 men 1400 horses, 255 mules and a Krupp 6-inch gun. The surrender was made to General Buller, July 28th. Gen. McDonald fought a year gharp action with the Boers also within the walls of Naanpoort in the Bechuanaland hills and effectually blocked Dewet's route to the Orange river. After his Prinsloo opened negotiations and finally surrendered unconditionally, on being promised that his force would be treated as prisoners of war and not as rebels. Prinsloo arranged to surrender his command of 3,000, but as the leaders in the distant hills refused to come in, claiming to be independent of Prinsloo, Lord Roberts ordered General Hunter to resume hostilities and listen to no excuses.

The London Morning Leader asserts that Lord Kitchener has been despatched from Pretoria to Krugersdorp to organize a column to follow Buller's force, now besieged by General Delany at Heidelberg.
