This romance is in every way orthy of the author of the Rosary; wholesome, sweet, instinct with no-bility, throbbing with life and with love. The confident wooing of the hero has in it so much of unspoiled human nature, and the hesitation of the heroine so much of tender fore-sight and solicitude, that one canno wish that life might often bring such rare naturalness and beauty.

TWENTY YEARS.

Makes a great difference in most women. They are troubled with "nerves"—they suffer from backache, headache, sleeplessness, a sensation of irritability or twitching, hot flashes, dizzy spells, or many other symptoms of female weakness. The local disorder and inflammation should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets and the irregularity and weakness of the female system corrected and strengthened with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The strain upon the young woman or the woman of middle age—upon the nerve and blood forming structures—may be too great for her strength. This is the time to take this restorative tonic and strength-iying nervine and regulator. For over forty years sold by druggists for woman's peculiar weaknesses and distressing ailments. The one remedy so perfect in composition and so good in curative effects as to warrant its makers in printing its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. The one remedy which absolutely contains neither alcohol nor injurious or habit-forming drugs.

Following letter selected at random from a large number of similar ones and cited merely to illustrate these remarks:

"In the winter of 1003 I became greatly run down and irregular," creation, overlooked. This tragedy was narrowly averted by breathing th breath of life in to a rib which Adam kindly donated for the occasion. No man who is not married can emplate a womanless world without shudder, but several married men of our acquaintance refuse to get excited over the prospect. The mental processes of a woman are very confusing. As the poet so well says: woman, in thine hour of ease. Uncertain, cov and hard to please:

We first endure, then piny, then em brace. Woman is divided into three classe

-wives, maids and widows. Wives re the most numerous and expensive. Maids are young women who are constantly being sought in marriage by omebody who is too tight to hire a ook. An old maid is one who is not ossessed by the harrowing fear that omebody will marry her before she can get busy with the trousseau. The most dangerous form in which woman comes is that of the restless and combative widow, who is liable to fall of something entirely different. Many a man has tried to instil a little platonic friendship into a widow and wound up under a smilax wreath surrounded by an admiring circle of prospective step-children. The new woman is a variety which looks upon man as an accidental joke, but appropriates all of his wardrobe except the pegtop p-ts. (For further infor-
