Local and Other Items.

The YEAR 1816 was the coldest ever-known in New England; there was no summer, and ice formed in June, July and August.

THE STRATFORD RACES, which com-menced on Tuesday, were a very tame affair. The number of spectators on the grounds was variously estimated at from 1,000 to 1,500. Three races came off.

George Kelsey, of Nichol, shot a wild cat which weighed some twenty-eight pounds should be a doubt of his guilt. However, Mr. Kelsey has had some sheep killed this summer, and now thinks that he has scured the culprit.

Dr. McErnoy, of New York, being the content of the principle could have no application to the present case, as there was no doubt that the prisoner was innocent of the charge against him.

Dr. McElroy, of New York, being about to marry his fourth wife, some one asked his daughter who was going to perform the ceremony. She replied, "I don't know, but I presume that it will be Dr. Spring. He generally marries father."

Y. M. C. A.—This evening being the voted to a devotional meeting by the Young Men's Christian Association when it is hoped there will a arge attendance more especially of the members. A New York hotel keeper, on going to masquerade ball not long since, called at the home of his mother to see if the disguise would suit. It did. The old lady on opening the door gave one scream and then fell flat on the floor dead.

THE HULL of the Mary R. Robertson, of Kincardine, which was burnt some time ago at the Straits of Mackinaw has been raised and taken to Detroit, where she is being rebuilt. It is expected she will be on her old route in about six weeks n Tuesday's represent under we heading, appears some states ich should not be left unans which should not be left unanswered when the writer of that article says that in the opinion of almost all present at the trial, the evidence established almost conclusively that the girl was a consenting party, he makes a statement entirely without foundation. Nearly all present were satisfied the girl was a consenting party and no one could pretend to say even on her own evidence that she offered anyon the country of the charge that the control of the country of the charge that the charg on her own evidence that she offered any-thing like active resistance. The charge against the prisoner was not for com-mitting incest or an attempt to do so, as there is no such crime known to our law, but simply that he had attempted to force the girl. Now to establish a charge of this kind it must be shown conclusively that the girl offered resistance, and the relationship between the parties cannot be taken into account. Conservatives in Toronto outside of the Mail staff acknowledge that the Government will have but a small majority, which will be made up from Independent members.

The vessel burned all night, and was totally destroyed, together with the Hongkong mails, freight, and passengers' and officials' luggage. The rapid progress made by the fire forced all hands to jump into the sea, there being no time even to lower the boats. Six Chinamen were burned or drowned, and ten Chinamen, the engineers, store-keeper, steerage watchman, and cook are missing. The treasures will be recovered. The cause of the fire is unknown.

with the recommendation of the Relief Committee be taken by the Council, a public meeting be convened, and that a Committee be appointed to examine the list of those who have received relief during, say, the last three years, and at a subsequest meeting let them bring their report, and tell us how many teetotalers or their families have been relieved, and the amount of relief given them; and how many drunkards or their families have been relieved, and what it nas cost the town. Let the committee consist of one-half temperance men, the other half not so, and let the Mayor be chairman.

I throw out these remarks, as I am satisfied that acting according to the recommendation of the Relief Committee would be injurious both to receivers, as well as givers.

Political Items

It is generally considered that Sir rancis Hincks' acceptance of a nom ination in Vancouver's Island indi-cates weakness on the part of the Government, and was, at least, bad policy. It is fully believed that allo Government cannot but for a short time survive the meeting of Parlia-ment.

A rumor is current in Montreal for Richmond, will be elevated to the Senate, in order to make room for Sir George Cartier.

We read without surprise in a Montreal contemporary the announc-ment that "Sir Francis Hincks has intimated his intention to retire from public life, and to make his perman ent residence in that city." This decision is but a natural result of the elections, out of which Sir Francis and his colleagues have come so sorely wounded and demoralized.
