Mr. James Dangerfield, and niece, Miss Florence, spent Sunday with friends in St. Thomas.

Just think! Somebody is going to get a $1500.00 Gray-Dort car for just $1.00 from the G. W. V. A.

A rink of Aylmer Bowlers composed of Albert Chambers, J. A. Gillett, George Sears and E. C. Monteith were at the tournament in London yesterday.

Bomb. R. J. Wright has made a remarkable recovery from his recent operation. He is able to walk about each day, and hopes to be fully discharged within three weeks.

A large number of Aylmer people visited Port Bruce, Port Stanley and Port Burwell on Sunday. It was a little cooler by the water, but still the weather was uncomfortably hot, the thermometer being over 90 in the shade. For the past week the weather has been as hot as we usually get at harvest time and is most unseasonable.

The person that gets the car from the G. W. V. A. will have a smile on their face that won't wear off.

The heat of the past week has been very hard on both man and beast. The farmers have been behind with their work on account of the heavy rainfall during April and May and last Saturday a number of horses in this vicinity died from the effects of the heat. One farmer lost two hogs, and another found three calves in the field just about all in. He took them to the barn and managed to bring them around. It is the first time in the memory of our oldest inhabitants that live stock has succumbed to the heat the first of June.

George A. Summers, who has been a great sufferer for many weeks passed away at his home Talbot street, east, Aylmer, on Friday noon, May 30th, after a lingering illness caused by hardening of the arteries. Deceased has been a resident of this place for the past sixteen years, retiring here from the Summers home-stead at Summers Corners. He was born in Malahide, being the son of the late J. R. Summers and Susan Harper, pioneers of this section, and was one of a family of thirteen children, the only surviving member being Mrs. Ellen Campbell, of this place. He followed the occupation of farmer and was very successful. The funeral took place from his late residence on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and was largely attended by old friends and neighbors of the deceased. Rev. W. K. Hager, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, of which deceased was a consistent member, conducted the service. The floral offerings were many and beautiful requiring a separate car to convey them to the cemetery. The pall bearers were five nephews: J. R. Summers, Rowan Summers, George H. Summers, Wallace Denton, Murray Farthings, and one cousin, George Harp. The remains were laid to rest in the Aylmer cemetery, and the funeral was one of the largest ever held in Aylmer. The late Mr. Summers is survived by his widow and six children: Mrs. J. D. Pound, Talbot street, east; Mrs. George N. Dunning, Mrs. (Dr.) A. E. Muma, of Aylmer; Murray, of the 8th con. of Malahide; Grant, on the Summers home-stead at Summers Corners, and Bert, at home.

Poultry prices are now the highest. Phone the Hambidge Co.

Miss Marion Summers, of Alma College, was a guest at the home of Miss Erie Young over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trim leave this week for Albion, Mich., to visit their daughter, Mrs. McKay.

Mrs. U. R. Bailey, of Detroit, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutchinson.

Aylmer's Chautauqua is to be held this year on June 16 to 21. The programme is every bit as good as last year, if not better and no doubt will be another wonderful season.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Percy and Mrs. Henry Percy left on Tuesday for Balcarres, Sask., where they will make their home in future. The best wishes of their many friends follow them in their new home in the West, although it is with regret they see them go.

The death of Mrs. Isabella Peacock, occurred at the home of her son, M. Peacock, near Mt. Salem, on Friday, May 30th. Deceased was in her 89th year, and death was due to old age. She was well-known in Malahide where she has been a resident for many years, and was highly respected. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 3.30 from the residence of her son, and interment was made in the Dunboyne cemetery.

The Grimm Manufacturing Co., of Montreal, this year offered prizes for the best maple sugar and maple syrup manufactured in Canada with one of their champion evaporators. W. E. Leeson & Sons, Talbot street, east, made an entry in the syrup contest and were successful in winning second prize, of $10, scoring 98 points out of 100. Leeson & Sons have been well-known in this district as makers of the very best syrup, and their product is so much in demand every season that they cannot begin to supply their many customers with syrup, and now their reputation is national. We congratulate them on their splendid success.

A very pleasant event occurred at Glenholm on Saturday, May 24th, when two very highly respected citizens of that place, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Neff celebrated their golden wedding. A large number of friends called upon them during the day and offered congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Neff were the recipients of a nice purse of money, as a slight token of the esteem in which they are held by the neighborhood. Mr. Neff, despite his 75 years, is still very active, looking after the work on his 50-acre farm. His wife does not enjoy good health and is quite an invalid, but despite this fact she is very cheerful and was delighted to see her many friends.

S. F. Ball, G. T. R. agent here was unfortunate in having his Chevrolet car stolen while standing on Talbot street, St. Thomas last Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ball, accompanied by W. W. Rutherford and D. N. McGregor, motored to the city to hear Mrs. Nellie McClung, and after the lecture went to Graham's parlor for some ice cream. They left the car standing on the street. In a few minutes when they came out the car was gone. They were forced to hire a motor to drive them home and at once reported the loss to the police, with the result that the car was found on Invererie Heights, Pt. Stanley, Saturday morning. The thief had driven it there and left the headlights full on all night. Mr. Ball had the car insured and will receive the amount of any damages that resulted to the car.

Max arrived home from overseas Friday night and was given a large ovation and reception. His parents motored to Toronto to meet him and they were met at Ingersoll by a number of decorated cars and escorted to his own home town, where a large crowd had assembled at the town hall and he was publicly welcomed by Mayor H. H. McQueen and Soldiers' Aid Committee. The young hero who is now only 21 years of age, has been on active service in the Imperial army as a despatch bearer for nearly four years, in which time he has had some trying experiences. He was mentioned several times in despatches twice decorated, had several machines shot from underneath him and was seriously wounded in the face. During the big German drive last April, he was captured, but within 24 hours had escaped from his captors minus all clothes and equipment, and bringing valuable information to headquarters. Mr. and Mrs. Barrett and family were former residents of Aylmer.

Youell & Wrong

Born—At Amasa Wood Hospital, St. Thomas, on Monday, June 3rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maddock, Paynes Mills, a daughter, Mrs. Maddock was formerly Miss Elizabeth Scherer, of this place.

Rev. Mr. Stapleton, of Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church here on Sunday, morning and evening. Mr. Stapleton was here in the interests of the Christian Men's Federation of Canada, and gave two interesting and instructive sermons. The Federation is interdenominational and international, and the object is to make it a world-wide organization. The big idea is to Christianize the world, and is well worthy of support.

Helen, the little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Draper, of Detroit, fortunately escaped serious injury last Thursday. While going across the road she was struck by an auto. She had presence of mind enough to cling to the bumper of the car, which unfortunately ran about three car lengths and collided with another auto. The jar broke the child's hold and she fell beneath the wheels of the car to which she was clinging. Her legs were badly bruised, but fortunately no bones were broken. Mr. and Mrs. Draper were former Aylmer residents.

The Carnation Milk Products Co., Limited, has notified its patrons that it is impossible for them to handle Sunday's milk on Monday as heretofore, on account of the warm weather, and that they will receive milk every Sunday morning until further notice. Also that they will not accept Saturday night's or Sunday morning's milk on Monday so long as the weather necessitates. This came as a surprise to many last Saturday, as it had been announced that no Sunday delivery of milk would be permitted by the government. The company claims that Sunday delivery actually results in less work for all concerned, as the farmers have to work hard to keep the milk over the Sabbath in hot weather, and prevents much waste.

A petition is in circulation in St. Thomas asking the city council to pass a by-law compelling all stores to close Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, so that business men and their clerks might enjoy a day of rest on Sunday, and not be tired out after a Saturday evening's rush. This would hardly do in Aylmer, for last Saturday night for instance shoppers from the country did not get to town until after 9 o'clock, and it was one grand rush until after midnight. At this season of the year the farmers work all day Saturday and do not come to town until after dark.
