Mere side issues will not weigh much rith fair-minded men.—[London Free Press.

True, O neighbor. Why, then, be so foolish as to try to divert the attention of your readers from the full import of the serious charges gainst Judge Elliot by magnifying a elegraphic error?

And why raise so many side issues as to the London Liberal notices, and Judge Elliot's remarkable twistings and turnings hereanent?

DRAINAGE COMMISSION Do you dare to deny :

Do you dare to deny:

1. That two county court judges (Judges Price and Wilkinson, of Kingston and Napaneo respectively) admitted notices, presented by Conservative agents, much less complete than the London Liberal notices, and decided the cases brought before them on their merits, their one desire being to keep on every good name and score off every bad name, without regard to technicalities. to technicalities.

2. That Revising Officer Fraser, a Con-

THIS COMMISSION WILL HOLD A sitting for the purpose of receiving evidence on the working of the drainage laws of the Province, namely the Ontario Drainage Act, the Drainage Sections of the Municipal Act, the Diches and Water Courses Act, and the Tile, Stone and Timber Drainage Act, at the servative partisan, decided that the Liberal notices, though incomplete, were valid, and capable of amendment. 2. That they were amended as he de-County Council Chamber, Lonbeginning each day at 10 a.m. All persons interested in drainage, and having had experience in the working of the above drainage laws, are invited to attend.

3. That in their criginal shape the notices were held to be good by Chief Justice Armour, Mr. Justice Street, and Mr. Justice Falcoubridge, in the Court of Queen's Bench.
4. That in their unamended condition those notices were held to be good by Chief Justice Hagarty, Mr. Justice Maclennan and Mr. Justice Burton in the Court of Appeal.

5. That all the persons appealed against under those notices had, in plenty of time before the day set by the revising officer for their trial, not only the first notice, but the their trial, not only the first notice, but the notice decreed by the revising officer, served on them according to law.

6. That the revising officer tried each of the cases in the same manner as he adopted towards the Liberais, but giving them the benefit of every doubt.

7. That the hearing of all cases in which those objected to did not appear was, at the instance of Conservative counsel, adjourned to enable them to make one final effort to establish their right to be on the lists.

THE Board of License Commissioners for the City of London will meet in their office, 142 Queen's avenue, on Wednesday, 20th day of April, at 19 o'clock in the forencon, to consider the applications for liquor licenses for the ensuiny year. Any retirion against the granting of a license must be lodged with the undersigned four days before the said meeting. to enable them to make one final effort to establish their right to be on the lists.

8. That the Free Press, on Dec. 7, 1891, the final day for hearing the cases, contained this announcement:

THE REVISION.

On our eighth page we give the names of those voters whose cases will be called at the City Hall this morning, commencing at 11 o'clock. They are standing at the request of the Conservatives, and unless they appear before 1 o'clock the Liberal lawyers will insist upon these names being removed from the list.

9. That the suggestion that these men remained away on the advice of the same Conservative counsel was an afterthought to shore up subsequent action by Judge Elliot.

10. That, when appealed to Judge Elliot. PARTIES WISHING to sell would find it to their advantage to write or call on him and get terms. All letters of business promptly attended to. Furniture bought and fold on commission. New and second-hand goods sold at store by trivate sale as well as auction. Money advanced on goods left for sale. NEIL COOPER, Auctioneer, 241 Dundas street. 10. That, when appealed to, Judge Elliot asserted that he had no power to interfere with the decision of the revising officer that the original Liberal notices were good, and the original Liberal notices were good, and capable of amendment.

11. That in truth he had no right to upset that decision, as the law explicitly confers that power on the revising officer.

12. That while the appeals were pending in the higher courts Judge Elliot on more than one occasion pretended to be waiting for their judgment so as to give decision in accordance with the views of his superiors, as has been the invariable practice of County Court judges in Canada and in Great Britain. A Dinner Hill.—Many persons suffer exeruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of leing a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Hills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, epen the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.
