After taking leave of his good friends of Port Elgin, who had accompanied him thus far upon his journey, he set out for Tara. At at Southampton, his reception there was most cordial. As his carriage drew up in the village street the Tara band struck up a tavorite air. Mr. Laurier was met in the parlor of the British Hotel by a number of the leading citizens of the place. After luncheon an impromptu meeting was held in Vandusen's Hall, which was completely filled by the large andience which had assembled. There were many belies present. Mr. McCausland occupied the chair. Dr. Wilson, president of the Tara Reform Association, presented to the basier an admirably-worded address on behavior that organization. An address of Mislock and Sutherland. At the conclusion of this most agreeable meeting a large number of those present were introduced to the leader. Dr. Landerkin, Mr. P., joined Mr. Sutherland at Tara and accompanied them to Owen Sound. Several arches of evergreens had been erected in honor of the distinguished visitors, and the streets were therwise decorated. In the evening Mr. Laurier spent an hour very pleasantly at the Kirmess of the Young People's Society of St. George's Church in the roller rink. CLOSE OF MR. LAURIER'S CAMPAION.

Owen SOUND, Sept. 22.—Hon. Wilfrid learner this afternoon addressed 1,500 people in the Third street rink here, thus bringing to a close his Ontario campaign. His speech was an enunciation for revenue latid, looking to free trade. He also charged the Thompson Administration with seandalous extravagance. Touching as if John Thompson's speech at Belle, Mr. Laurier declared that all hopes of tariff reform were at an end.

Happy Relief Abdominal Support. Mrs. Pickering, of Brantford, whose exhibit was in the main building respectfully calls the attention of physicians to her Happy Relief Patent Abdominal Supporter. This support, being invented by a personal sufferer, will, therefore, be found everything that is desirable. Being made of the best material, it is very strong, light and esool, keeping its position easily and well and affording the exact support where needed without irritating other parts. All who have used it speak in the highest terms of the Supporter. Physicians recommend it to their patients. Mrs. Pickering has also an appliance, which is attached to the Supporter for a truss when needed. This new invention is a grand relief to those who suffer. All information, together with circulars will cheerfully sent to any address by applying to Mrs. Pickering, P. O. box, 149, Brantford, Ont.
