IN THE SOUDAN.

Paris, Aug. 18.—It is reported here that another French detachment was recently surprised near Dohi, in the Soudan, by the insurgent Fatougs, who were subsequently routed by the French troops.

A HAUNTED CASTLE DIRT CHEAP—London, Aug. 18.—Superstition still lives in England. Anglii Castle, Westmoreland, which cost $70,000 to build, and which was sold some years ago for $10,000, has now been resold for $3,250 because it is reputed to be haunted by mysterious flaming spirits.

CHANGE OF COMMANDERS—London, Aug. 18.—Admiral Sir John Arbuthnot Fisher, K.C.B., controller at the admiralty, has been appointed to command the North American and West Indies station of the British fleet, in succession to Vice-Admiral James Elphinstone Erskine.

SALISBURY SAYS NO.—Constantinople, Aug. 18.—Lord Salisbury refuses to allow a Turkish occupation of Thessaly, pending a partial payment of the indemnity agreed upon, and peace negotiations are at a standstill.

FOUR THOUSAND HOMELESS.—Warsaw, Aug. 18.—Ostrow, a town in the province of Sedlice, Russia, is in ruins, 400 houses being burned and 4,000 people homeless. Four persons are known to have been killed, and many children are missing.

FEUDLAND'S CHOICE.—London, Aug. 18.—A Hungarian newspaper publishes an interview with M. Stollhoff, the Bulgarian premier, who represents him as saying: "Bulgaria first set her hopes on Russia and then on Austria, but she soon found it useless to expect help from Europe. Prince Ferdinand, therefore, turned to Turkey, who, in the event of war, will support Bulgaria with 100,000 soldiers. Prince Ferdinand would rather have the hand of the sultan than abase himself before Europe."

MARK TWAIN'S NEW BOOK.—London, Aug. 18.—Mark Twain's English publishers say: "Twain's new book, 'More Tramps Abroad,' will be issued either in November or December. The edition will be large and the volume has more than 500 pages. The book is a collection of his travel notes and writings. It develops a new vein of seriousness, which we expect will attract a new class of readers. A large part of the work is devoted to the present conditions in India, and Twain gives forcible expression to his opinions of religious life there."

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

A Lady Cured After Seventeen Years Affliction With Disorders Peculiar to Her Sex by Dodd's Kidney Pills—Other Unfortunate Cases Cured as Well as She.

Toronto, Aug. 16.—The publication of the letter of Mrs. Reany, of Ashland, Wis., concerning her cure by Dodd's Kidney Pills after seventeen years of sickness, has awakened widespread interest among the women of Canada. It is truly marvelous that a woman afflicted as long as she was, who had tried all the remedies within her reach and all the doctors could do for her, should be cured by so simple and easily accessible a remedy as these pills. What they did for her they will do for all other women suffering from diseases peculiar to their sex.

Her Affairs Largely Dealt With by the London Papers.

London, Aug. 18.—Canada almost monopolizes the London newspapers today. Some of the leading journals have two leaders on such topics as the speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Louis Davies, and the British Association meeting at Toronto. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's acceptance of a gold medal at the Cobden Club is spoken of as the last nail in the coffin of Hon. Mr. Chamberlain's solution of the Home Rule question.

Some, however, like the Standard, claim that the diminished orb of protection, rather than the struggling planet of free trade, is the guiding star of popular Canadian politics.

Report of the British Royal Commission on the Cause of Depression.

London, Aug. 18.—The royal commission appointed in 1893 by the British government to inquire into the cause of the agricultural depression in Great Britain and Ireland, have just issued their report. The report is a long and valuable document, and contains many recommendations for the relief of the agricultural depression.

The commission make various recommendations, covering railway freight rates, damage by game, and the effect of the depression on the rural population. They also make suggestions for the improvement of the rural population, and for the relief of the agricultural depression.

The funeral tributes on the casket and surrounding it, were very numerous—indeed the coffin was literally covered in floral tributes of the most beautiful and unique design. Among the most conspicuous of these tributes were the following: A large anchor from the scholars of the Sunday school, a beautiful star from the Baptist Young People's Association, a pillow from the Logan Avenue Baptist Church congregation, a very large and elaborate floral shield from the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, a beautiful floral crown from the deacons of the church, and a wreath from the congregation of the Baptist Church of Boiesevain, and a very handsome wreath from the choir. The latter bore the inscription worked in flowers: "Our pastor's last hymn: 'I am thine, O Lord, my strength and my salvation, for thou hast been my refuge in the day of trouble.'"
