FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.
Another dull and uninteresting market this forenoon. The attendance and the supplies were light, and trade as a result was dull.

Hay and Straw—Nearly 25 loads on the stand. Sales were fair, all being sold at $3.50 to $3.75 per ton. Several choice loads sold at $3.75 per ton. Straw is scarce, at prices quoted.

Butter and Eggs—Butter is plentiful, the demand is easier, and sales are as a result slow at prices quoted. Eggs are becoming more plentiful as the season advances. Dealers are not laying in any stock, as they expect lower prices will prevail.

No vegetables of any account offered. Apples were not plentiful, at prices quoted. Poultry—Not a great deal in. Prices are as usual, but not very good. Turkeys are scarce, at prices quoted.
