LOST IN BLIZZARD.

Portland, Maine, Dec. 21.—Another victim of last Thursday's blizzard is believed to be the Bangor schooner Marcus Edwards, with a crew of five men, which was last seen off Chatham shortening sail, and making heavy way in the storm.

The missing schooner sailed for Provincetown Dec. 15, on her way from New York for Bar Harbor. She is of 227 gross tonnage, and was built in 1875.

The more radial railways London gets, the better for all classes of the community. Vote, then, for the bond guarantee.—Ad.

It has been a matter of speculation for months, but no letter has been received from Rome, and those best capable of judging scout the idea that any such drastic action will be taken. As a matter of fact, hundreds of priests are members of the Knights of Columbus, and the chaplain takes a very important part in the initiation ceremony.

Buried at Caradoc.
Frank Thompson, son of the late John Thompson, of concession 2, Caradoc, was drowned on Dec. 11, while boating with a companion on a lake at Auburn, Wash. The young man was 35 years of age, and had spent his boyhood and early manhood at his father's home in Caradoc, but had been in the west for the past ten years. He was of a most upright and lovable disposition, and leaves a host of sorrowing friends, both at Auburn and his old home in Caradoc. The remains arrived at Mount Brydges on Sunday and were taken to his former home, the funeral being held on the following day. The service at the grave was conducted by Mount Brydges Lodge, No. 217, I. O. O. F., of which deceased had been a member for the past fifteen years, after which Rev. P. O. Nicol, of Delaware, preached a short but impressive sermon at Cook's Church. He was laid to rest in the family burying ground, six of his boyhood friends acting as pallbearers.

A PRETTY WEDDING OF POPULAR COUPLE

Miss Esther A. Greene becomes the Bride of Mr. Heber W. Gibson.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in the Empress Avenue Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, when Miss Esther A. Greene, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greene, of 115 Mill street, was married to Mr. Heber W. Gibson, youngest son of Mr. William Gibson, of 113 Oxford street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George W. Dewey, in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride party approached the altar amid the strains of a Wedding March played by Mrs. George Stead. The bride, who was beautifully gowned in white voile over white satin, was given away by her father. She wore a bridal veil and carried a large bouquet of white roses. Miss Berta Cassidy, of Fergus, was
