

America Hails New Heavyweight Champion, Al Palzer

Al Palzer, the New Champion, in Action.

[The heavyweight pugilistic situation is peculiar. Although Jack Johnson won the championship, he will never again be permitted to fight. This remarkable story echoes the sentiment of fight fans everywhere.—Editor.]

Jack Johnson has eliminated himself from the prize ring.

He has severed his connection with boxing in this country, Australia, England and France.

No self-respecting boxer, white or black, will meet Johnson for his now empty title. Indeed, no boxer need meet Johnson to become world's champion, because as a prize ring attraction of the public's money, Jack Johnson no longer exists.

The promoter staging Johnson would sign a voluntary bankruptcy petition. He would be shunned by men who support boxing. No decent man would put up a cent to see him fight anybody.

Six weeks ago this negro scornfully refused to box for less than $30,000. Before his exposure, Johnson had signed a contract for $50,000 to fight Langford and McVey in Australia. Hugh McIntosh cancelled this when Johnson's disgraceful deeds became public.

The ring has been guilty of many a shady, even criminal transaction, but it is refreshing to note the unanimity with which it bars Johnson.

It is a big, white mark to the credit of our dollar-mad sporting men that they unify in rejecting the aspersions cast upon American women by Johnson.

So, with Johnson out, there are plenty of decent heavyweights in the world. Bombardier Wells, champion of England, is one. Al Palzer, conqueror of Wells, is another. Little Sam Langford, the giant killer, is another.

If Wells weighed 20 pounds more he would be the peer of any boxer. He has everything a champion needs save weight properly distributed.

Today, the heavyweight title seems to rest, by right of physical superiority, upon the shoulders of the corn-fed giant.

Palzer is the logical champion. He is a youngster, game and willing. He will never be a Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons or Kid McCoy, but there is no reason why he should not be the reincarnation of Terry McGovern and Battling Nelson.

He is a giant in the bright flush of youth. A clean-living, virile, man-mountain, weighing 220 pounds, with six feet three inches of dynamic activity and force.

He possesses the undaunted courage of a Nelson with the tireless, awe-inspiring rushing of Terrible Terry. He loves to get close to an opponent and exchange pile-driving blows until one drops for the fatal 10.

Imagine this clean-limbed boy, his great barrel-like chest housing enormous heart and lung power; tremendous shoulders with rail-like arms, muscled like a Vulcan; a thick column-like neck supporting a head bolder than his bulldog jaw and mop of black hair, throwing great bulk across the ring with the speed of a lightweight—and you visualize Al Palzer in action.

Palzer has everything to make a champion. He has the size, he has led a clean country-boy life. He has marvelous physical powers. He recuperates in the way that made Fitzsimmons a terror.

Rugby Notes

I had not the officials been strict Saturday at Rosedale, the game would have degenerated into a regular old-time slugging match. As it was there was a lot of "inside stuff" handed out on the line that the players got away with. Kilt lived up to his reputation Saturday, and was the head man of the field. He was off three times, and should have been off the fourth when he caught Sinclair on the jaw, after the latter had caught a return kick.

The paid attendance at the game was 4,632 and the receipts will come close to $2,000. No less than 523 motor cars were on the ground. The attendance was as follows: 1,840 grand stand, 1,790 west bleacher gate, 570 east bleacher gate, 840 north bleacher gate, 400 standing room in front of grand stand. In addition to this there were 900 in the club-house that did not figure in the Argos receipts.

After the game the Argonauts entertained the Rough Riders to dinner at the Prince George, and also at Shea's in the evening.

Secretary Livingston, of the O. R. F. U., has submitted the following: "The report published of Friday night's executive meeting of the O. R. F. U. in the Alert matter has created a false impression which I should like to have removed.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE THROWS DOWN GAUNTLET

Will Go Ahead and Prepare For Opening of Season, Says Patrick.

[Canadian Press.]

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 11.—"The Pacific Hockey Association will go ahead with preparations to open the season here on Dec. 12, regardless of any action that the eastern association may take towards organizing a commission," declared Frank Patrick, manager of the Vancouver team, following the receipt of news that the N. H. A. had failed to take definite action.

O.H.A. WILL CONSIDER FEW AMENDMENTS

Several Minor Matters To Come Up at Annual Meeting on Monday Next.

RULES NEARLY PERFECT

Facing Off of Puck Will Be the Only One That Is Likely To Be Changed a Little.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—The annual convention of the Ontario Hockey Association will be held at 9 a.m., on Monday, Nov. 13, at the Temple building, Toronto. There will be a morning session only. At this meeting each club in the association will be entitled to representation by one delegate, exclusive of the members of the executive of the association, and the delegate must be a member of the club he represents. No delegate will be allowed to represent more than one club without disqualification, and another to give a teacher the same privilege as a student in regard to residence qualification. The rules of the game must be nearly perfect, as the only amendment is regarding the facing-off of the puck. The new clause merely enforces an unwritten law. The amendments are as follows: To Debar Commercial Teams.

Present clause: No club whose members average under 14 years of age shall be admitted, and no club shall be admitted or retained which has not a bona fide membership of at least ten active members.

Amendment, by Dr. W. G. Wood, Toronto: After words "members" in the last line add: "Or represents or plays under the name of any commercial organization."

Matters of Minor Detail.

By W. A. Hewitt, Toronto: To juniors to play one intermediate match in a season, while retaining junior certificates.

By J. Burns, Toronto: To allow clubs that have senior and junior, but no intermediate teams, to use juniors once in senior games.

By J. Ross Robertson, Toronto: To extend to teachers the privilege allowed by students of a choice between their school and home teams.

By W. A. Hewitt, Toronto: To provide that players facing the puck must keep the blades of their sticks on the ice until the referee drops the puck.

"The easterners can open to us, and until they do there will be no commission. I signed several eastern stars, and they will be with us until the season opens. I have acted absolutely fair in the matter, and we are prepared to do business, but until such time as the N. H. A. comes to us with a reasonable suggestion we will not bother about a commission. Regarding Lichtenheim's letter, now en route, Patrick stated he had nothing to fear from the Wanderer boss. "He has our reply to his previous letter, and I think that explained the situation. I dare him to publish our reply in full in the eastern papers. I do not want Johnson back. Lichtenheim may get a surprise when he learns that we have several eastern stars booked for the west."

Strong Addresses Made Urging Spread of Gospel Before Union Meeting.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, Nov. 11.—The British and Foreign Bible Society here was well represented last night in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The meeting was opened by Mr. John Kerr, president of the society, after which a number of addresses were given. Rev. G. Collins read the Scripture. This was followed by prayer by Rev. Dr. Routledge, and the address was rendered by Rev. D. Kerr, pastor of the church, his topic being "Why I respect the Bible." In his address he explained fully its uses in Scotland, when the book was new and how it had grown in heathen lands. He stated he was once in a church before an audience of over three thousand people, and noticed but two Bibles, and were on the pulpit. He urged that all present take up the work and help to send the Bible to heathen lands, where it was needed. Captain Pugmire, of the Salvation Army, spoke in a similar manner.

The choir, under the direction of Professor Cline, sang well. Miss Jean Vanouren and Miss Jean Geddes sang a duet, with the choir joining in the chorus, and Miss Gracy as organist.

The reports were read by Secretary John Ritchie, and proved satisfactory to all present.

On the platform were the following: Chairman, Mr. John Kerr; speakers, Capt. Pugmire, Salvation Army; secretary, Mr. John Ritchie; Rev. G. V. Collins, Rev. D. Perris and Rev. Dr. Routledge.

After all reports were read the following officers were elected: President, Dr. Irwin; vice-president, Dr. Redmond; secretary, Mr. J. Ritchie; treasurer, Mr. A. Gossage.
