TORONTO LEAFS BREAK EVEN WITH HUSTLERS

Shocker Holds Rochester to Three Hits in Opener.

BISONS WIN BOTH GAMES

Providence Defeats Richmond and Baltimore Wins From Newark Indians.

TORONTO, June 6. — Toronto and Rochester broke even in a doubleheader today, the Leafs taking the first game 5 to 1, and Rochester winning the second 8 to 2. Toronto won the opening contest by bunching hits on Hill and Kramer, while Shocker held the visitors to three scattered hits. Rochester won the second game when they drove McTigue from the box in the seventh inning, and continued the onslaught on Thompson, scoring seven runs, winning the game finally 8 to 2.

MONTREAL. June 6 .- Buffalo took two games from Montreal today, 8 to 4 and 7 to 6. The first game was won wholly by virtue of Montreal's errors, no less than nine misplays upsetting the good pitching of Fullerton. The second game was a slugging match, in which Buffalo overcame a six-run lead, and won the game in the ninth inning by hard hitting. Scores:
