BACK FROM SERIES

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, Oct. 17.—Danny McPhee, St. Thomas' famous southpaw, will be seen with the Rochester International League team for the next season, according to information given out today. Rochester is the farming out team of the Brooklyn Nationals, with whom McPhee has signed a four-year contract. He will go south with the Brooklyn team in the spring, but is expected to be given his first tryout with the Rochester aggregation.

While in the Southern Ontario Baseball League this season, Danny made a real name for himself. He pitched two no-hit, no-run games, helping St. Thomas cinch the group title, and enabling the Saints to go into the semifinals against the Galt Terriers, now the senior O. B. A. A. champions of Ontario. McPhee will be greatly missed in St. Thomas, where he has made a great many friends since leaving his home town. West Lorne. Donoghue, sitting erect and holding a long rein, in contrast to the custimary American style of riding, got his first survey of Belmont track on which he will match his riding wits with Earle Sande, leading jockey of the United States, in the big race.

The English jockey seemed pleased with the condition of Papyrus, which he piloted to his fifth Derby triumph at Epsom Downs.

Basil Jarvis, trainer of Papyrus, removed tonight the last hope that the Derby winner, if victorious over Zev, might accept the $50,000 offer of the Maryland State Fair Association for a race at a mile and a half with My Own. Zev's rival for 2-year-old honors, at Laurel track on Thursday of next week.

"All being well Papyrus will setum."
