MRS. CLEVELAND.

Purchases Which the Lady of the Land is Alleged to Have Made.

Yonk, Dec. 18.—The visit to last week of Mrs. Frances Cleveland of the president, has created much talk in official and society circles throughout the metropolis. It is reported that she has made several purchases of considerable value. On this occasion the lady made several purchases of considerable value. It is stated that she made purchases of the store she patronized. "The papers say she purchased Christmas presents for the president and her family. It is also stated that she purchased a pair of diamonds for the president's wife."

BRITISH NOTES.

Bright and Home Rule.

Yonk, Dec. 7.—The Tribune's special of December 6th is an important document in the history of the liberal union. It is a strong letter from John Bright, insisting that the defeat of any measure looking towards the Irish liberal-unionist, and that on could the liberal party be reconciled to the liberal union. A communication member, who is still on the ground, should be challenged to defend in a conference, and some more may be proposed by Dixon, Ingham.

South Wales.

Yonk, Dec. 18.—The South Wales committee of the liberal union, held today to arrange for the meeting to be held tomorrow and to discuss the proposed resolutions. A strong letter from John Bright, insisting that the defeat of any measure looking towards the Irish liberal-unionist, and that on could the liberal party be reconciled to the liberal union. A communication member, who is still on the ground, should be challenged to defend in a conference, and some more may be proposed by Dixon, Ingham.

Disgraceful Scene in the Assembly.

Yonk, Dec. 18.—The House of Representatives, on the 17th inst., witnessed a disgraceful scene in the debate on the bill for the relief of the army. The speaker, Mr. T. C. Cannon, was interrupted by a member of the opposition, who was rebuffed with indignation. The scene was a disgraceful one, and it is to be hoped that such a thing will not occur again.

FEDERAL FEDERATION.

Resolved to Meet in London.

Yonk, Dec. 18.—The Federal Federation, which has been organized in London, has decided to meet in London. The meeting is to be held on the 15th inst. at the Hotel de Ville. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the subject of the federation of the British Empire.

CHURCH DECORATIONS.

How the Churches are Decorated for the Christmas Festival.

The ladies of the church have every year, under the artistic direction of Mrs. Jones, made the interior of the church at Christmas a place of beauty. This year they have excelled all previous years in their decorations. The church is now a beautiful sight.

What Some People Say.
