location, out of the reach of high water. He returned to Spokane yesterday, on his way to Victoria, and intends to pay us another visit in a few weeks' time.

Mr. W. P. Sayward, whose great experience in mill matters has been indispensable in the consideration of the proposed new mill site, paid us a short but pleasant visit and returned to Victoria via Revelstoke, Tuesday last.

Other visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. C. Other visitors have been Mrs. and Mrs. C. Other what sayd some days. THE FIRST SEASON ENDED. Other visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. C. Prevost, of Victoria, and Colonel A. G. Smith, of Chicago, who stayed some days, and were entertained as guests. They found recreation in fishing, landing some splendid fish, and Mrs. Prevost was most successful in taking some fine photographs of the charming bits in the vicinity.

The town lots were placed on the market on Tuesday, the 28th: the area available for town purposes is small, and this fact, taken in connection with the necessary growth of a city close alongside of a big smelting and reduction works, resulted in very good prices being obtained. Some splendid lots were disposed of, and others are now on offer. Mr. W. D. Mackay, the engineer, is busy levelling and cross-sectioning streets, with a view to the immediate letting of contracts for grading.

As usual in basehall figures there are many things of interest in a comparison of the work of each team against the others. Portland has climbed to her high place at the expense of Seattle, having won no less than thirteen out of sixteen games from the tailenders. With Spokane the champions have broken even with eight victories spiece and have been slightly worsted by Tacoma, which has taken seven out of thirteen games. Tacoma has the better not only of Portland, but also Spokane, winning nine out of fifteen games from the latter, but has lost more than its share of games to Seattle. Spokane breaks even with both Portland and Seattle, but has not been a match for Tacoma. While making such a miserable showing against Portland, Seattle has beaten Tacoma and won half of its games with Spokane.

Spokane.

Following is the comparative standing of the clubs at the close of the season:
