Royal Murder Scene Once Becomes Scene of Honeymoon

Does Homicide Run in Families? Glamis Castle, Scotland, where the Duke of York, second son of King George, and his bride will honeymoon. This is the castle referred to in Shakespeare's "Macbeth." Eight hundred years ago Macbeth murdered Duncan, King of Scotland, in the room marked by the cross. His lineal descendant seems to have inherited the family weakness for he is murdering husbands in grand opera today with remarkable success. Inset: Florence Macbeth, prima donna soprano of the Chicago Opera Company, as Lucia in the opera, "Lucia di Lammermoor."

FATAL ACCIDENTS WELFARE WORKER ON C.N. RAILWAY COMING HERE SOON

Two Firemen Killed in Accidents On Sunday—One Near Newcastle Other at Moncton.

Moncton, April 8.—When the Ocean Limited from Montreal was passing near Newcastle on Sunday, John H. McLean, fireman, in some unaccountable manner fell from the cab of the engine and was instantly killed. His neck had been broken by the fall. Mr. McLean was twenty-eight years of age, had been on the road about eight years and was popular. He was a son of John F. McLean, Moncton, and besides his parents is survived by a wife and one sister. Herbert McDonald, locomotive fireman, aged about forty was instantly killed and Charles Vincent, driver, seriously injured, on Sunday morning, working sidetracking some cars that had moved out of a siding onto the track on which the hunter was working. Mr. McDonald leaves a wife and a young son.

This step of Mr. Frenette's was necessitated by the destruction of the Bay View Hotel on March 14th by fire. Miss Mary Devereaux left on Thursday morning for Springfield, Mass., where she will spend a couple of months.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Killoran on the arrival of a daughter at their home on April 2nd. Mr. Gerald Buckley of Dalhousie, Miss Mary Devereaux left on Thursday morning for Springfield, Mass., where she will spend a couple of months.

Miss Constance Allison, and Miss Cecelia Dwyer students at St. Michael's Academy, Chatham, spent the week-end at the home of their friend Miss Patricia Culligan, Culligan.

Mann's Settlement We are glad to see Mr. James Lyons up and around after being very ill for several weeks with pneumonia. Mr. "Charley" Lyons has been ill for several days and we all join in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Edward Irving spent Easter in New Carlisle, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Hilan Huntington.

CARD OF THANKS Mr. Peter Columbe of Glen Leith, N. B. wishes to thank his many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown him in his recent sad bereavement.

Lady Larkspur

Belongs to the garden of bright as well as useful things. She not only pleases the eye and adorns the landscape but in her soul are highly beneficial properties.

Meredith Nicholson

has written this fascinating romance with the idea of benefiting readers by chasing away gloom. It contains mystery, romance and dramatic elements, but its prime quality is in its fanciful charm served with exquisite good humor. It concerns Bob Singleton, an American inviolated from the Royal Flying Corps, "Aunt Alice," the young and fascinating widow of his eccentric uncle; her companion, Mrs. Farnsworth, a foreign agent, Count Montani, "Aunt Alice's" fan, an official of the state department and a prisoner in the tool house. It will get your interest and agitate your funny bone.

Our New Serial! Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ritchie Adams, (nee, Ruth V. Groat) of Matapedia, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy—Chatham Commercial.

BLUE SKY LAW FOR PROVINCE

Bill to Protect Investors Will be Introduced in the Legislature Soon.

Fredericton, N. B., April 7.—New Brunswick is to have a blue sky law, the bill to be presented to the legislature next week by the government having already been printed. Attorney General Byrne outlined some of its most important provisions today. It will be similar in many respects to blue sky laws in other provinces and will check in lieu of sale of stock under the board of public utilities.

The provisions of the bill will not include Federal, Provincial or Municipal bonds or those of foreign countries or stocks listed on exchanges approved by the board of public utilities.

Agents will then be licensed to sell the stocks which are approved. Fines and imprisonment are provided as penalties for infraction of the proposed law.

A blue sky law in this province will be the first of its kind in the province. The bill will be presented to the legislature next week by the government.
