Officers and men of all the regiments, regular and volunteer, will contribute their share to the assured success of the imposing military display. The competitions embrace all the popular military feats, some of which will have the attraction of novelty for thousands of citizens who will witness them. With the varied and comprehensive program, the most distinguished patronage, the pick of the expert in each regiment and the apt inauguration of the finest drill hall in Canada, no element of interest and success has been omitted. So capacious is the armoury that cavalry manœuvres can with safety be performed, and those who throng the galleries to-morrow and the two successive days will see as fine a tournament and as clever contests as ever she delustre on the tented field. The occasion will be memorable and another red-letter day will be inscribed in Toronto's military records. The somewhat similar tournament by British, soldiers last year, full of interest though it was, will not be more attractive than the elaborate The forthcoming Military Tournament in last year, full of interest though it was, will not be more attractive than the elaborate program which opens to-morrow night.
