THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM:
OR, THE SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION.
INTERPERSED WITH A MULTITUDE OF ENGRAVINGS, INCLUDING Portraits of Celebrated Winning HORSES, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena, Legerdemain &c.
It is now six months since this publication was commenced in Philadelphia—and although the publishers have used no extraordinary means to procure a knowledge of its merits, yet such is the satisfaction manifested by that portion of the Public who have been made acquainted with its character and contents, that its list of patrons continues constantly and rapidly to increase. This paper is now distributed regularly every week over a wide portion of the Union, and the most satisfactory assurances are received that it will eventually become one of the most popular among the numerous excellent periodicals which issue from the American press. No exertions will be spared to establish its permanent reputation more extensively; and if the liberal sanction of those for whom it is especially designed shall warrant its future improvement—both as regards typographical measures and embellishment—it will be gratefully advanced.
The different PLAYS and FARCES that will appear in the course of the year, at themselves, will be worth more than FOUR times the amount of subscription. The following is a list of those which have already appeared—

GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM.
A Large and Splendid Engraving of A Celebrated Race Course, OCCUPYING a considerable portion of an entire page, and unequalled in size and execution by any which has been hitherto presented to the public in the Sporting Journals of this country, was published on the 12th instant in the GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM; OR THE SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION. This beautiful and exciting picture has been the labor of several weeks, and cost the publishers nearly ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS. The increasing patronage of the Gentleman's Va de Mecum, will be an inducement to the proprietors to continue their exertions in beautifying their work with subjects calculated to advance the reputation which it has already acquired.—The contents of this number will be varied and interesting; the popular Comedy of the RENCONTRE which has never before appeared in print, will be given entire. The official accounts of the proceedings of the different Race Courses throughout the country are regularly inserted, and a great variety of Miscellaneous articles, embracing every subject deserving attention from the reading community.
Subscriptions received by Smith & Alexander, No. 3 Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia. Terms, three dollars per annum, payable in advance.

THE MODERN ACTING DRAMA.
Is published in volumes every six weeks, and contains the plays which appear in the Va de Mecum. Subscribers to, in which will be furnished with complete (that is eight volumes) for $2.00—book the Modern Acting Drama and Gentleman's Va de Mecum, for five dollars per.
