Montreal Gazette: What we said some time ago of the Old South Leaflets as affecting United States readers, is especially applicable to this experiment of Mr. Hay's, as affecting students of our own annals. At a nominal cost (ten cents a number) one is favored with a veritable treasury of tid-bits by our foremost historians, dealing authoritatively with what is most noteworthy in the records of the old regime and the new.

Kingston Whig: A great deal of information, valuable in an educational way and for storing in the literary archives of Canada, is being produced by this series. Canada requires national spirit and historical pride, such as is being coaxed into life.

St. John Telegraph: Mr. G. U. Hay is doing good work by the issue of these supplementary readings, and we congratulate him on their success. * * * The series may now be considered to be well established, and the youth of the Maritime Provinces are to be congratulated on the manner in which history is now being taught through this magazine and similar publications.

Truro Sun: All who are interested in the choicest bits of Canadian history should procure these leaflets.

Belleville Intelligencer: The table of contents is an attractive one, and filling as it does, a neglected niche in Canadian journalism, the new quarterly should receive generous support.

Quebec Mercury: Number five of the Canadian History Leaflets is a publication which one can read through with pleasure and profit. This pamphlet is growing in importance and value with each issue, and it ought to be taken by all students of sidelights on Canadian history.

Montreal Herald: The series has been planned with the special object of giving interesting sketches on a variety of topics connected with our country's history. The result cannot fail to be of great benefit to the students of Canadian history.

St. Andrew's Beacon: All these gentlemen (the writers for the leaflets) are well qualified by study and experience to write not only intelligibly, but truthfully, upon the subjects they have chosen. The historical accuracy of their contributions may, therefore, be relied upon.

Charlottetown Patriot: The papers are very interesting and instructive. All who desire to know the history of their country will find the leaflets an up-to-date and delightful means of attaining this object.

Victoria, B. C., Colonist: Something more than a legislative appropriation is necessary to secure the telling of the story of early Canada, so that it will impress itself upon the character of the people. All that can be done until the skilled narrator puts in an appearance is to collect as many of the data of the past as possible.

St. John Sun: The whole publication is not only useful for the purpose designed, but contains historical studies of great general value. * * * Love of country is everywhere held to be a virtue in a people, and love of country should be grounded in a knowledge of our country's history.

Halifax Presbyterian Witness: These papers ought to be placed in the hands of senior pupils in our schools in order to accustom them to the pleasing exercise of looking into the sources of history, and the study of events as narrated at first hand.

R. E. GOSNELL, Librarian Legislative Library, B. C.: I must congratulate you not only on the conception of such a commendable enterprise, but upon the success with which it has been initiated.

St. John Globe: The text-books on Canadian history which from time to time have been prescribed in the public schools have not proved very successful. They have been dull and heavy reading and have been crowded far too full of minor facts and useless details. THE EDUCATIONAL REVIEW has hit upon a happy plan to remedy this defect. It will issue a series of leaflets which will present the leading events and persons in our history in a clear and interesting manner. * * * The various issues of the leaflets will certainly prove an acquisition to the school as well as to private libraries.

Toronto Globe: The object of the publication is obviously to popularize knowledge and build up national sentiment.

Fredericton Herald: It is on the whole a most excellent publication and should be eagerly sought after by students of history.

Weymouth Free Press: Not the least benefit to be derived from this effort to supply deficient library facilities, it is hoped, will be increased love on the part of the young for Canada, and a better acquaintance with the sacrifices endured by its founders.

S. E. DAWSON, LL. D., Ottawa: It seems to me to be a most promising idea.
