circumstances, to increase the appro- be greatly increased and many others every one possible, to aid the Home with Thank offering services. Galicians. This is to be in addition as found in the Annual Report. Now to the usual offering for Home Mis- my sisters, the months are before us sions. We would recommend the holding of at least three public missionary meetings during the year, both for the education they give on the to our funds by the collection.

at

en

ιd٠

.ve

to

He

·id-

ka

ınd

t٥

1865

ver

1150

and

to

to

red,

s to

year

anl

bees

ening

She

what

t He

MISSION BANDS.

We praise God that there seems to be an awakening among our people to the importance of this work for the children and young people. Miss Etta Yuell, Wolfville, N S, has been appotned Superintentent of Band work and will prepare the Mission Band lessons for the coming year. These are to be accompanied by articles from our missionaries on scenes of life and customs in India which we hose may prove of great service to the Band leaders and of interest to the children. Will not our sisters of the en re W. M. A. S. feel it their duty and oreign privilege to encourage and develop Mis this work among the children. It is obably the only hope for our future growth I more and with God's blessing is a most is real finitful and encouraging part of our other work. ear in

CRUSADE DAY.

et this October 5th has been appointed as Crusade Day." There are still half or women who are church members Bands sies. Let this day e generally ob-08, N B rived this year and a .companied by der the mest prayer may our membership printions for the coming year, so they become actively engaged in this great remain $7,500 for Foreign Missions, mission work. If the day appointed $2000 for Home Missions. There were is not convenient select some other more life members than ever before, time. At eleven o'clock united, speca d we hope the coming year may ial prayer in our homes, visiting in bring a still larger number. It was the afternoon and a public missionary valed that ten cents be collected from meeting in the evening accompanied Mission Board of the Northwest to sup- work of the Union for the past year port Mr Burgdorf, a missionary to the should be brought before the people full of blessed opportunity to be used or abused. May the Lord "stir up our spirits" as He did His servants of old that we may weep over our past negsubject of missions and the addition lect and with renewed enthusiasm and diffigence give ourselves to the building of this spiritual temple. work is great and difficult, but the promises of God are greater. 'I am with you, saith the Lord of Hosts," therefore we are to put discouragement far from us and 'be strong and work."

> The present is as full of God as the past and the revelation of God's presence made of old has a transitory manifestation of a perpetual reality. We need this lesson, for we are ever tempted to think to-day more void of God than the days of old and that our work is more difficult than any that has preceeded it. We think that Heaven touches the Earth far ahead and far behind, but that where we stand is farthest from the blue above. Let us realize that today is full of God and He is with us as he was with the fathers and in greater measure for the Comforter is come and abides with ans torever. Therefore whatever threatens The greater glory we need not fear. is filling the spiritual temple and the promise "I will shake all nations,' is being fulfilled. The future will surpass the past for "Through the ages an increasing purpose runs."

May God make us true and faithful