

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special Notes.

Rev. F. M. Holt, Lynn, Mass., preaches to-day and next Lord's day. Bro. Frohock, who preached last Sunday, gave us some plain talk, and our hope is, that ere long we may hear of his taking a Pastorate in the Provinces.

Rev. E. E. Gates, son of our Bro. W. J. Gates, is expected home next week. He will preach for us Sept. 15th. Rev. A. C. Archibald preaches next Sunday.

The Maritime Baptist Convention is holding its 56th Annual Session for business in Moncton, beginning Saturday, 24th inst.

Rev. Geo. Wilson McPherson, Nyack, New York, Evangelist, was present at our prayer meeting Wednesday evening last, and took part. We hope to have him preach in September.

Rev. J. Hugh Jenner, West Springfield, Mass., called to the pastorate of the church.

At the close of the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, the church was invited by the Committee to consider the important matter of calling a Pastor. A large number were present, and by unanimous vote extended a call to Rev. J. H. Jenner. As stated at the meeting, and by correspondence, Bro. Jenner was born 1861 in St. John, N. B., lived for a time in Sussex, was Baptized in 1881, by the late Rev. J. H. Foshay, he is graduate of Acadia University 1891, was ordained at Brookfield, Queen's Co., N. S., and served his present charge 6 years. He is a reader, thinker, preacher and Pastor—"a self made man," with an "excellent wife" and three children. Should our Brethren accept our call, he will find the old North Church with a "large degree of spiritual power" ready to back up his efforts.
