MISCELLANEOUS.

We don't have to travel far to find out that all hogs don't have four feet.

The devil has a pretty sure thing on the man who loves money and hates work.

In your blood is the cause of that tired, languid feeling. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes rich, red blood and gives renewed vigor.

Is there any use in the merchant going to church to try to please God, while the curtains are up in his show windows, trying to catch the crowd.

Suppose New Yorkers should leave the question to New York wives whether they should have Sunday closing and sober husbands, who doubts the decision?—Inter Ocean, Chicago.

Among the "fresh facts" in The Christian Leader, of Glasgow, Scotland, appears this note: "London is more thronged with Americans than usual; their clergy swarm even into the pulpits."

Some good election stories of past times are retold by the British papers. The Glasgow Herald relates that the late Justice Keogh was once running for Parliament and solicited a laborer for his vote. "I would rather vote for the devil," was the ungracious rejoinder. "That's all very well," said the judge, "but as your friend has not accepted the nomination, you may just as well give your vote to me.

HEART DISEASE RELIEVED IN 30 MINUTES.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gives perfect relief in all cases of Organic or Sympathetic Heart Disease in 30 minutes, and speedily effects a cure. It is a peerless remedy for Palpitation, Shortness of Breath, Smothering Spells, Pain in Left Side and all symptoms of a Diseased Heart. One dose convinces. Sold by all Druggists.

"Two neat phrases," says The Publishers' Weekly, "are flitting about the literary world. The first is due to Mr. Zangwill, who lately spoke of a number of contemporaneous writers as 'falling into the sea and Yellow Book.' The second is attributed by an essayist in Blackwood's to an anonymous and probably imaginary friend who classified literature as of three kinds—'erotic, neurotic, and tommyrotic.'"

A rich and well-read Russian non-conformist, who had begun to entertain doubts concerning the relative claims of the different religions, turned to Count Tolstoi for light. "All religions are good," he wrote to the Count; "but tell me which is the best?" Count Tolstoi promptly mailed him a postal card bearing this laconic answer: "If we [Christians of the Greek Catholic Church] are not in possession of the truth, you will not find it anywhere else."

THREE WANTS.

"Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense,
Live in three words, health, peace, and competence."

So says the poet. Competence counts for little when one is sick, and peace is disturbed when health is upset, so that the poet rightly places health first. To have good health you must have pure blood. From the blood the system receives all its material of growth and repair. The best blood-purifier is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is world-famed and sold everywhere. It is a sovereign remedy for all diseases due to impoverished or impure blood, as consumption, bronchitis, weak lungs, scrofula, old sores, skin diseases, and kindred ailments.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, promptly, thoroughly and permanently cured. Send ten cents in stamps for large illustrated treatise, sent securely sealed in plain envelope. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N.Y.
