

neither locks or hinges are necessary, and all can be constructed by an ordinary carpenter without special joinery skill.

GLASS.

To be the sizes shown and of as good quality as procurable under the circumstances. The principal faults to be looked for being color, waves, bubbles or flaws.

A CHEAP CASE FOR MUSEUMS

DESIGNED BY HARLAN I. SMITH

WITH

PLAN AND SPECIFICATION BY P. A. TAVERNER

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, CANADA